County DCCW Chooses New Officer Slate

New officers were elected at the meeting of the Monroe County Council of Catholic Women held on Tuesday, May 20, in Father A. of the Columbus Civic Center.

Installed in a ceremony in the chapel were: Mrs. Lawrence P. Weis, president; Miss Virginia Croston, vice-president; Mrs. Anthony Christian, recording secretary; Miss Mary Hinchey, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. William Foley, treasurer. Mrs. David W. Bishop is retiring president.

THE REV. HENRY A. AWELL, assistant editor of the Catholic Courier-Journal, was principal speaker. Father Atwell spoke on public relations as an important facet of the work of the clergy, stressing the need for Catholics to be neither "silent nor secretive" about the many excellent projects in which they are involved for both the Church and the community.

Good will in contacts with the secular newspapers, radio and TV, with non-Catholics—in all areas of activity—should be the main objective of all Catholics. If they are to be effective, he stated.
