Statue Crowning, Fashion Show Mark May Day

May Day festivities at St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing were climaxed on May 27 with the crowning of the statue of the Blessed Virgin on the school campus by the Children of Mary.

As an act of public profession imitating the loveliness of Mary, students formed in procession to her shrine where they recited the rosary in unison, sang hymns and offered clas tributes. Marilyn Dietz of Rochester, president of the Children of Mary at the school, placed a crown of flowers on the statue of Our Lady of Grace.

Following a picnic supper, the students gathered in the hospital chapel to receive 17 Freshmen as new members and to install officers for the coming year. Newly installed were Carol Callahan, Rochester, president; Mary Ann Murphy, Rome, vice president; Rita Esterfield, Rochester, secretary; Barbara Gray, Webster, treasurer; Linda Brown, Rochester, alternate secretary; and Adele Marinetti, Rochester, alternate treasurer.

SERMON AND benediction were given by Raymond Kenny, director of the Children of Mary at St. Mary's.

Religious exercises were followed by a showing of Summer fashions in the nurses lounge, presented by the Webster Style Shop. Participating as models were Mrs. Ann German of the faculty; Mary Jane Day, Sally Shimmel, Barbara Gray, Mary Katherine Gangel, Gertrude Murray, Sylvia Mendon, Marjorie Vercruysee, Rita Kuder, Mary Ellen Lawler and Marcia French, all student nurses.

Co-chairmen of the day's events were Janice Smigle and Beverly Tettis. Chairman of the fashion show was Rosemary Curcio and of refreshments, Sally Shimmel.

Fides Forum Lists Father Shamon

Rev. Albert J. Shamon, a member of the faculty at St. Andrew's Seminary, will discuss "The Things That Are God's" at a meeting at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, June 3, in St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 402 South Ave.

It will be the final in a series of eight lectures scheduled by the Fides Forum, a discussion group sponsored by those who conduct the hospitality house. The meeting will be opened with the recitation of Compline, the night prayer of the church. The public is welcome.

Local Scholastic Goes To Pacific

Mr. William J. Malley, S.J., son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Malley of 466 Chilli Ave., Rochester, was one of six Jesuits who were feted at departure ceremonies held last Tuesday in Buffalo, prior to their departure for the Pacific.

In Buffalo, His Excellency, Bishop Burke presided at Solemn Benediction at St. Michael's Church and Rev. Philip E. Dobson, president of Canisius College, preached the sermon, in honor of the two local priests and four Scholastics departing for duty in the Philippine, Marshall and Caroline Islands.

Cenacle Lists Blind Women, Other Retreats

Retreats for blind women, and other laywomen and Corpus Christi Feast observance are planned at the Cenacle Retreat House as follows:

A retreat for blind women will be given at the Cenacle Retreat House, 693 East Ave., over the weekend of June 20-22, with Rev. Paulinus Gepp, C.P., as retreat master.

The retreat opens with supper at 6:30 p.m. Friday and closes at 4 p.m. Sunday. The generosity of other women who have made retreats at the Cenacle makes it possible for the Religious to offer this retreat to any blind woman who wishes to make it, whether she can make the usual offering or not. Transportation will be arranged on request. Reservations may be made by writing or telephoning the Cenacle, BR 1-8755.

Eight Day Retreat Set

An eight-day retreat for laywomen will be conducted at the Cenacle Retreat House, 693 East Ave., from July 3-11. Rev. Lewis M. Cox, S.J., of LeMoyne College, will conduct the exercises.

The retreat will open at 6 p.m. on Thursday, July 3 with supper. It will close with Benediction at 4 p.m. on Friday, July 11.

Evening Mass At Cenacle

Friends of the Cenacle Retreat House are invited to participate in an Evening Mass and procession on the Feast of Corpus Christi, Thursday, June 5 in the garden of the convent, at 693 East Ave.

The Mass will be celebrated at 5:30 p.m. by Rev. Msgr. James C. McAniff. Those who desire may receive Holy Communion.

The procession in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, which follows the Mass, has been held at the Cenacle each year since its establishment in Rochester 10 years ago.
