A SPLIT-LEVEL MAYBE?

There was the woman who dropped into one of our great department stores here in Rochester last week in search of a house dress.

"I just want something very simple," she explained to the tremulous first-day-on-the-job salesgirl, "just to wear around the house."

"Yes'm," replied the girl as she fumbled for her measuring tape, "just how big is the house?"

Speaking of big houses

Joseph Entress, the energetic builder of 'Homar Homes' in Our Mother of Sorrows parish in Greece is providing houses for young families with as many as FIVE BEDROOMS. Two of the bedrooms on the second floor remain unfinished until the family grows into them. Young families grow... houses don't.

The Entress plan saves a lot of future moving.

The turnout to see Caldwell & Cook's "Class of '58" Model Home in Our Lady of Mercy parish last Sunday afternoon was most impressive. The white brick faced modern ranch with an exciting treatment of a walk-out basement recreation room was enthusiastically received by the viewers. The Mount Morris Furniture Company gave much careful planning to the furnishings. Funny how little things like an illuminated street number stays in

Yes, the home that you are living in today may have been quite adequate when the children were babies.
