Academy Seniors Plan Picnic

Willow Point Park, June 4, will be the scene of the annual senior class picnic for the 254 seniors of Nazareth Academy according to Rev. Charles B. Connell, chaplain, director of the social program for commencement.

Activities for the day include a baseball game in the morning and competitive races, games, miniature golf and rides in the afternoon.

The seniors will entertain the faculty with an original surprise program after luncheon.

A SPLIT-LEVEL MAYBE?

There was the woman who dropped into one of our great department stores here in Rochester last week in search of a house dress.

"I just want something very simple," she explained to the tremulous first-day-on-the-job salesgirl, "just to wear around the house."

"Yes'm," replied the girl as she fumbled for her measuring tape, "just how big is the house?"

Speaking of big houses... Joseph Entress, the energetic builder of Homar Homes in our Mother of Sorrows parish in Greece is providing houses for young families with as many as FIVE BEDROOMS. Two of the bedrooms on the second floor remain unfinished until the family grows into them. Young families grow... houses don't, and the Entress plan saves a lot of future moving.

Rochester Woman Named To Post

Bernice Trunk, 13 Borchard St., Rochester, was elected third vice president of the Department of New York Catholic War Veterans Auxiliary at the state convention held in Elmira at Mark Twain Hotel.

A past Monroe County president, she has had experience with youth of the country through CYO work and "Joe Dean Hops" sponsored by Our Lady of Perpetual Help Auxiliary.

Arline Emiller, 73 Riverside Ave., Buffalo, was elected first vice president.

Monroe County CWV Auxiliary resolution adopted called for financial aid to state officers to be reimbursed for transportation expenses for at least three board meetings a year.

YOUNG FAMILIES NEED ROOM TO GROW. Have you outgrown your Home?

Yes, the home that you are living in today may have been quite adequate when the children were babies. But suddenly, it seems, your young daughter is putting on gentle (?) pressure for a room of her own. Certainly a brother's toys and all sorts of gadgets have no place in a little lady's boudoir, that's for sure. And then there is the nursery to be needed soon, in how many months? Don't delay any longer! Move out of your present home and into a HOMAR HOME that will suit your needs NOW and for the Rest of Your Life!
