Graduates Will Hear Bp. Kearney

The 92 graduates of Nazareth College will attend the baccalaureate services at the Motherhouse Chapel of the Sisters of Saint Joseph on East Ave., Sunday, June 1, at 11 a.m. His Excellency Bishop Kearney, will be the celebrant of the solemn Pontifical Mass and will also give the baccalaureate address.

Assistant priest will be Msgr. Charles H. Bosle, Diocesan superintendent of schools. Rev. William H. Shannon, chaplain of Nazareth College, will be the deacon and Rev. Albert H. Schuck, director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, will be subdeacon.

Deacons of honor will be Rev. Roy B. Morphy and Rev. Paul Cuddy, relatives of members of the graduating class. Master of ceremonies will be Rev. Edward J. McAniff. Minor offices of the Mass will be filled by students of St. Andrew's Seminary.

THE SENIORS and members of the Schola will attend the Mass and will march in procession from the college to the chapel. The students will sing "Ave Maria" and "Gloria in Excelsis" and the proper of the Mass for Trinity Sunday will be rendered in Gregorian Chant by the Schola Regina Padi. A two-part Mass by Brager will be sung by the members of the graduating class. For the Offertory, Benedictus, St. Deutz, a three-part motet by Ravanello will be sung a cappella by the graduates.

After the last gospel the graduates will present flowers which will be placed on Our Lady's altar by Bishop Kearney. During the presentation the seniors will sing the Ave Maria by Montani. The recessional will be Ravanello's "Te Deum" Celebrant, sung by the students.

Parents, relatives, and friends of the graduates, as well as the religious and lay faculty, and un-

Area Socialists On Auburn Retreat

Nazareth Cadets Hold Review, Awards Ceremony

Nazareth Hall Cadets held their sixth annual review and presentation of awards ceremony at the Lake Ave. school grounds last Sunday.

In a day marked by clear skies, the first such day in the history of the review, cadets from the third through eighth grades marched through their paces before a crowd of several hundred parents and relatives. The review climaxed the school year.

TEN AWARDS were presented. The honor division award was won by the Cavaliers and accepted by Cadet Capt. Robert Wheeler from Col. Noah J. Rodeheffer, U.S. Marine Corps, one of the reviewing officers. The school battalion is composed of two divisions, the Cavaliers and the Musketeers, who vie against each other throughout the year.

The honor platoon award, given for outstanding effort, was won by the Cavaliers and accepted by Cadet William Preston from Cmdr. William M. Carpenter, U.S. Navy, the second reviewing officer.

OTHER AWARDS were: the Sons of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Medal to a seventh grade boy chosen for patriotism, dependability, cooperation and leadership, to Cadet Paul Cross, presented by Col. Rodeheffer; the Drillmaster's Cup Award to the Cadet of the Year, won by Cadet Capt. William Klingner and presented by Maj. Joseph A. Schimmenti, U.S. Marine Corps and one of the military training directors.

Outstanding Athlete award, presented to Cadet Cpl. Anthony Sellito by George Cheston, Executive Director of the American Red Cross.

The guest band was from Aquinas Institute and was directed by the Rev. Cyril D. Udall, C.S.B.
