'Best Picture Of Year'

'Miracle Of Marcelino' Opens At Fine Arts

"The Miracle of Marcelino" opens today at the Fine Arts Theatre, South Ave. at Gregory St. Winner of the Grand Prize at the Cannes International Film Festival and rated "Best Picture of the Year" by Sign Magazine, the film stars six-year-old Pablito Calvo in the title role.

The movie is based on an old Spanish legend, found and rewritten into a best-selling novel by Spain's Jose Maria Sanchez-Silva.

IT TELLS the story of a little boy who was found by a Franciscan monk and taken into the village monastery. The twelve monks in residence there decide to rear him themselves rather than give him up for adoption into a home they know to be unhappy.

The situations that develop as a result of the child's being brought up in such unusual surroundings with twelve fathers and no mother are both comic and dramatic, and always touching and tender.

Little Pablito has been hailed everywhere as a brilliant performer. One New York critic said of him: "Pablito Calvo turns in a performance of rare depth and insight," an opinion unanimously shared by the press the world over.

Ads Cause Special Classification For 'Adam, Eve' Movie

New York—(NC)—A "sensational exploitation in advertising" was cited as the reason for evaluating the motion picture "Adam and Eve," a William Home production, in the separate classification category, the National Legion of Decency announced here.

It was explained that the separation classification is given to certain films which "while not morally offensive, require some analysis and explanation as a protection to the uninformed against wrong interpretations and false conclusions."

Regarding the "Adam and Eve" movie, the Legion made the following observation: "This film, based on the Biblical account of the origin of man in the Book of Genesis, is reverently and religiously presented in order to teach and inspire. However, the sensational exploitation in advertising tends to negate the spiritual motivation of the film maker and restricts the viewing to a special audience."
