109 Boy Scouts Receive Ad Altare Dei Crosses

His Excellency Bishop Kearney conferred 109 Ad Altare Dei Crosses on Boy Scouts who merited the religious award for 1958 at St. Augustine Church, Friday, June 5. Thirty parishes of the diocese were represented.

Blessing and presentation of the crosses followed blessing of the Colors by the Bishop and a welcome by Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, diocesan scout chaplain.

The Bishop in addressing the boys compared his pectoral cross with the cross each of them received. He said who knows, "one among you may someday wear a pectoral cross such as mine."

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

ST. LOUIS HAS A GROUP of men and women called the Daily Worldmissionaries who pledge themselves each day to pray for the Missions, to make a sacrifice or act of self-denial, which amounts to 25c a day, to send the alms directly to the Holy Father through his Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

THESE ARE SOME of the sacrifices actually made by the members to produce the daily 25c for the Holy Father:

- FOOD AND DRINK:
- 1) Skip dessert at daily lunch if you eat out.
  - 2) Skip nightly visit to the refrigerator.
  - 3) Give up all TV. snacks.
  - 3) Select the cheapest item on the menu when eating in a restaurant.

SMOKING:

- 1) If you smoke two packages a day reduce to one pack. That is the quarter for the day.

ENTERTAINMENT AND SPORTS:

- 1) Do without a secular magazine which kills the Spirit of Christ.
- 2) Carry your own clubs or use a caddy-cart instead of having a caddy.

AUTOMOBILE:

- 1) Save gas and oil by walking to Church.
- 2) Buy ten gallons of regular instead of premium gas.

THESE ARE BUT A FEW of hundreds of different sacrifices made daily by these noble men and women.

WE WONDER HOW MANY would be interested in making similar acts of self-denial? Or who would become group leaders in offices and collect 25c a week from the more Christ-like of the workers?

WE NEED HELP BADLY! "We" here means our identification with the heathen, the pagans, the ignorant, the sick in our-mission lands. Perhaps some of you would cut into your capital which becomes a "sacred cow" and send it to the Holy Father.

NO GREATER CHARITY EXISTS on the face of the earth than to: aid in the conversion of the pagans, heal the sick who are poor, make an act of faith in the Vicar of Christ by sending your alms to the Holy Father. This you do whenever you give to his Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

MAY THE PASSION OF CHRIST and the Compassion of Mary inspire you either to daily or great sacrifices for the 1,500,000,000 pagans of the world.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifices to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 365 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, N.Y. or your Diocesan Director, Rev. George S. Wood, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester 4, New York.

THESE STILL LUCKY

Sweepstakes Winner Gives $10,000 To Church

The "Luck of the Irish" is still riding high. You can take that from Alice M. Murphy of Waldwick, N.J., and her uncle, Father Donald J. Murphy, pastor of St. Pius X Church in Rochester.

Sometime last March Miss Murphy bought a ticket on the Irish Sweepstakes and—as luck would have it—her ticket was on Tiber, the horse that finished second in the world famous sweepstakes.

All told, Miss Murphy, a 23-year-old nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital, Patterson, N.J., collected $50,000, a pretty good return on a $2.50 investment. As soon as she received the money, she took a plane trip to Rochester to see her uncle, who is currently building a school for his comparatively new parish.

SENCE CHARITY begins at home, Miss Murphy donated $10,000 of her winnings to Father Murphy—the largest single contribution toward the construction of the new 12-room school house.

"I didn't ask her to donate the money," Father Murphy said. "It was just out of her own generosity that she did so."

When Miss Murphy was told about her good fortune, she didn't believe it. "I thought it was a practical joke," she said.

The money was deposited in a Newark, N. J. bank, requiring only her signature to get it. "But I couldn't get off work to go to the bank," Miss Murphy said. "When the hospital administration found out about it, they rushed in a replacement for me—then they gave me an hour to go to the bank."

NOT ONLY did Miss Murphy contribute money to the school building collection, but she was called upon to do some of the work in the school's construction.

Shortly after her arrival in Rochester, she was given the honor of turning over the first spadeful of earth, symbolizing the official start of the edifice.

Plans for the money? At present she hasn't decided. "I don't know how much I have left after taxes, which will take more

Lay Retreat Leaders Meeting Scheduled

Semi-annual meeting of all leaders of the Laymen's Retreat League of the diocese will be held Sunday, June 15 at 2:30 P.M. in the Oire D'ho Retreat House, 216 Alexander St.

A buffet lunch will follow the meeting, Charles E. Groves, league president said today: "As some important projects are to be discussed, leaders who cannot attend are asked to send a representative."

"But I have been thinking that it would be nice to take a trip to Europe someday. Of course, one of the first things I'll do is look up Tiberetti and say thanks," she added.

What? No Deposit A hillbilly bought his first ice cream cone. When he finished he went back into the store and offered the cone to the lady behind the counter. "Thank you very much," he said, "for the use of the vase."
