Students Receive Cash Awards In Poetry Contest

At a dinner held at Lorenzo's Restaurant on Wednesday, June 18, Kenneth Krapp, a sixth grade student at St. Thomas More School was presented a check for $25 for first prize in Division I in New York State for his poem entitled "Christmas Joy." The poem was entered in the 1958 National Poetry Contest sponsored by C.D.A., Court Rochester No. 1139.

Suzanne Rogers, a junior at the Academy of the Sacred Heart, was the recipient of a check for $15 for second prize in Division III in New York State for her poem entitled "Always."

THE PRESENTATIONS were made by Dorothy Walther, educational chairman of the court. Mrs. Samuel Christodoro, grand regent, was present at the awards dinner.

In attendance at the presentations were Rev. Joseph Dalley, moderator of the court, officers of the court and members, Mary Ashe and Mrs. Leon McGrady, two of the local judges of the contest, who together with Blanche Jennings Thompson have selected winning entries from this area, were guests at the dinner. The winning poems have now been submitted to the national level for further competition.

This contest is sponsored annually by C.D.A., Court Rochester No. 1139 and this is the second consecutive year that students in the Rochester Schools have been awarded state prizes.

Knights Of St. John Hold Annual Field Mass

Rev. Charles Daly, C.S.S.R., assistant rector of St. Joseph's Church, Rochester, was celebrant of the annual field mass, honoring departed members of the Knights of St. John and Ladies auxiliary, last Sunday.

Seated in the Sanctuary was Monsignor Joseph H. Gofell, chaplain of Rochester regiment. Several hundred uniformed knights and ladies stood at attention during the last roll call of the deceased members, who passed away during the year.

At the conclusion of the Mass, the knights and ladies paraded back through Holy Sepulchre Cemetery to the Dewey Ave. gate where presentation of the Rose Forum's trophies were made to Mt. Carmel Commandery No. 308 and Our Lady of Perpetual Help auxiliary No. 45, which gained the highest number of points at the recent inspection of the regiment.

Society Celebrates Feast of St. Anthony

Geneva—Members of the St. Anthony Society of St. Francis de Sales parish, held their annual celebration of the patron, St. Anthony, Friday, June 13.

Members attended the 8 a.m. Mass in St. Francis de Sales Church and received Holy Communion. Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward K. Ball, pastor of the church, was celebrant. Rev. John V. Loughlin was deacon and Rev. Robert Smith, sub-deacon.

THE STATUE of St. Anthony was decorated for the occasion with bouquets of white lilies and lighted tapers.

After the church service several of the ladies gave a breakfast for the members in the school hall. Hostesses were Mesdames Josephine Pane, Rose Felice, Amalia Felice, Grace Galanti, Edith Choffin and Mary Riccione.

Annual banquet of the organization was held Sunday, June 14, in DeLuxe Grill.
