

Sacred Heart Enthroned At Camp Villa Maria

Rev. Francis Larkin, S.S.C.C., national director of the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart, outlined a story of Jesus as an infant, a boy and a young man camping during the flight into Egypt on the annual trips for enrollment in Jerusalem and at other times during His life on earth in a magazine article on the enthronement.

"We can think of Jesus as the first camper, as there was no room in the inn for St. Joseph and our Blessed Mother on that first Christmas eve. And so, we may say that Joseph and Mary camped out in the lowly stable and that the Baby Jesus was the first camper."

FATHER LARKIN suggests this as a means of preparing the campers and staff for the ceremony of the enthronement, permitted in Catholic camps for the first time this year. This article, and the ritual for the ceremony, appeared in the March-April issue of Trail Signs, a magazine primarily intended for Catholic Camps.

On July 9, following the annual dinner for members of their executive board, the ceremony was conducted by Rev. Bartholomew J. O'Brien, of St. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, at Camp Villa Maria, on Harris Hill.

Under a natural canopy of oak trees against a background of sheltering pines, the campers had erected a rustic shrine. Led by the counselors, bearing lighted tapers, 110 campers marched in pairs from their cabins to the extreme end of the camp grounds, humming the hymn "Hail Holy Queen." Then came the board members and friends, preceding Msgr. Arthur E. Rallgan, Rev. Donald Mulcahy and Father O'Brien.

THE FULL RITUAL, written especially for camps, was followed by the entire assembly reciting the prayers or answering the ejaculatory phrases. Father O'Brien's talk was directed to his youthful listeners but the staff and all others found his story of the Boy Jesus, sadly searching for a camp which had not been given to Him, a startling challenge to an increased and intensified devotion to the Sacred Heart.

Constance Frank, camp director, enthroned the statue and received the certificate from Father O'Brien. The services closed with the singing of Holy God and a procession back to the cabins and big hall. Special devotions to the Sacred Heart, daily.

Dansville Parish Honors Priest

Dansville — The Rev. Orrin W. Feller, former assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, Dansville was honored at a farewell party given by parishioners in St. Mary's School building.

Father Feller who is now assistant pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Rochester was presented with a gift. Refreshments were served by the Christian Mothers Society. Wilfred J. Rauber welcomed the new pastor, the Rev. John M. Marklinger on behalf of the congregation.

Assistant pastor of St. Mary's from 1942-1950, Father Feller returned here as assistant to the Rev. Edward M. Scheidt in 1956. He had served as administrator of the church since the death of Father Scheidt in April.

Prelate Calls For Lay Apostles

Washington — (NC) — Problems confronting the Church today are "so vast that the laity must be reinitiated" to perform apostolic work, Bishop Matthew F. Brady of Manchester, N.H., said here.

Bishop Brady told a two-day meeting of the lay committee of the national center of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine that laymen must participate in the apostolate today as they did in Christianity's early days.

Both St. Joseph's and the new Epiphany churches belong to the Byzantine or Eastern Rite. St. Joseph's, located at 303 Hudson Ave., where Father Horodecky is currently serving as assistant.

Both St. Joseph's and the new Epiphany churches belong to the Byzantine or Eastern Rite. St. Joseph's, located at 303 Hudson Ave., where Father Horodecky is currently serving as assistant.

Bishop Senyshyn was in Rochester on May 30, Memorial Day, to bless St. Joseph's mission chapel dedicated to St. Nicholas at 804 Ridge Rd. E. The Bishop also authorized the establishment of the new Epiphany parish for approximately 250 Ukrainian families who prefer the Julian calendar arrangement.

According to Catholic Church law, Byzantine rite parishes are free to choose either calendar, the Julian or Gregorian.

The Ukrainian population totals approximately 1,200 Catholic families in the Rochester area, about 500 having come in recent years to America as refugees from Communist oppression in their homeland.

Chancellor Victor Hanley will be chairman of a corporate Communion Breakfast to be held at Bath in October.

REV. GERON LINDSAY

Wehles Transfer Home To Jesuits

Welfare Plantation, the Winter home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Wehles of Rochester, has been transferred to the Catholic Society for Religious and Literary Education, a Jesuit organization with headquarters in New Orleans, La., according to information received today.

Rev. Lawrence O'Neill S.J. representing the New Orleans society, said that the three and one-half acres of land has a furnished 11 room house located on the north fork of the St. Lucie River, Stuart, Fla.

Wehles, prominent New York brewer, philanthropist and former New York State Conservation Commissioner, built the house in 1922. It is completely modernized, including air conditioning and central heating.

Capuchins Name New Pastor At Interlaken

Appointment of the Very Rev. Anselm Leahy, O.F.M., Cap. as the new superior of St. Fidelis Friary and administrator of St. Francis Church, Interlaken to succeed Very Rev. Geron Lindsay, O.F.M., Cap. was announced July 8.

Reelection of Very Rev. Seraphin Winterroth, O.F.M., Cap. of Rochester as Provincial also took place at the provincial elections held July 8 by the Capuchin Fathers of St. Mary's Province at Mary Immaculate Friary, Glencliff, Garrison, N. Y.

FATHER GERON Lindsay was superior of St. Fidelis Friary since July 1955 and administrator of St. Francis Church since 1956. He now becomes pastor of Our Lady Queen of Angels Church, Harlem, and superior of the Friary. He is highly esteemed throughout the diocese and in the parish for his work here.

His successor, Father Anselm, has held many positions of responsibility in the Capuchin Order. He served as seminary professor, as retreat master, as superior and pastor and as missionary in Guam. He is one of the newly elected counselors of the Father Provincial.

The Province of St. Mary comprises New York and the New England states. Headquarters are in Providence, R. I.

Council Lauds St. Joseph Nun At Meeting

The 13th annual meeting of the Rochester Regional Hospital Council was held at the Clifton Springs Sanitarium and Clinic. About 65 board members and their wives heard Joseph M. Henry, council executive director, review activities and programs of the past year.

Those attending extended their congratulations to Sister Joan Frances, assistant administrator of St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira, for her elevation as a fellow — the highest class of membership in the American Association of Hospital Accountants.

THE ROCHESTER chapter of the American Association of Hospital Accountants expressed its congratulations to Sister Joan Frances on the successful completion of the first examination given by the American Association of Hospital Accountants.

She is the first chapter member, one of 19 persons in the country and one of four in New York State, to successfully complete the examination.

The council bulletin also noted that the 50th anniversary of St. Joseph's Hospital will be Sept. 24. The hospital in 1908 had only 35 beds and has grown to 222 beds.

Ordination And Wedding: Donnacona, Que. — (NC) — An ordination to the priesthood was a feature of the four-day regional Eucharistic Congress of Portneuf and 14 couples were married in a mass open air ceremony.

Father Dunn Feted At Tea

Coming — Some 200 members of St. Patrick's parish filled the church hall last week to honor Rev. Gerald Dunn of Rochester, assistant pastor of the church here the past three years.

Rev. William Tobin, administrator of the parish, spoke briefly, expressing appreciation for the efforts put forth by Father Dunn during his stay here. He presented a purse of money to Father Dunn from the parishioners.

Father Dunn then introduced Father James Baker, the new assistant to Father William Cannon, pastor. Father Cannon also spoke concerning the thorough job done by Father Dunn in the parish while here.

Mrs. Lee Poland was in charge of the tea assisted by:

Mesdames James Mulcahy, Charles Gollber, William Ebert, John Howe, Thomas Hanley, John Benza, Paul Smith and Louis Nessel.
