DOINGS AT THE DALY'S TO CAMP, THE GIRLS ARE MARCHING

Under the somewhat remote spell of the forest primeval, we at our house have been vicariously anticipating the murruring pines and the hemlocks...

Mary Daly has been wondering which of the old girls will be back...

In other words, we've been in the throes of what is casually tossed off by the more efficient as 'getting a youngster off to camp.'

FORTUNATELY, it all came in stages, much like working your way up in politics from the precinct level...

Next, the meeting with other parents on May 20, and receiving the descriptive literature, worn threadbare by this time...

chase of new camp uniform, last year's completely out grown; unearthing a suitcase 20"x12"x18".

And then, into the back of our consciousness went Ginny's camping as our attention was poignantly centered on Mary and her operation...

After Mary, complete in long cast, was more or less comfortably ensconced in her own bed at home...

GINNY'S willing spirit and her sturdy legs never failed us and I'm afraid, we took advantage of both.

"You're mighty good to me, Ginny," Mary remarked one day after a long series of up-and-downs such as these.

"That's all right," Ginny adjusted the rose spread on Mary's bed. "I'll give me practice being a 'hopper' at camp next week."

We almost dropped the vase of flowers we were arranging. "Next week! Camp starts next week?"

"Yep! next Monday," our camper grinned. "But I've got news for you, Mom. Come on out to my room."

Scotch-taped to her wall was the list of equipment required, with check marks beside almost every item.

"JOHNNY and I cooked this up to surprise you," Ginny was laughing, showing us the lineup of shoes, sneakers, sturdy oxfords, galoshes...

"A mighty good Girl Scout," we tried to take it in the same spirit of practical helpfulness.

"Uh-huh, they're in the attic and I knew you'd know where to find 'em. And I have to go for my pre-camp check-up. You fill out one side and Dr. Rude fills out the other."

When we came to the blank marked "behavior," we had an impulse to write "Wonderful!" but, not to embarrass our scout, we entered it as "normal."

Night before take-off, we had Ginny's favorite dinner—hamburger—and took the fee creep and cake dessert up to Mary's room so we could all be together.

Early next morning, we loaded our Scout into the busload of green-clad campers.

"Eve, Mom and Dad," she waved out the window. "I'll write to you every day—but don't expect long letters, 'cause I'm going to have a blast!"

Nun Named 'Miss Democrat'

Spokane, Wash.—(NC)—A nun named "Miss Spokane County Democrat" as the winner of an essay contest sponsored by local Democrats explained she entered to show that a Sister is not exclusively concerned with Church affairs...

Sister Mary Consilia, a 22-year-old Dominican nun, received a check for $100 as first prize in the contest from Gov. Albert D. Rosellini of Washington at the Democratic state convention in Yakima.

Her winning essay was written on the theme "Why I Should Exercise My Right to Vote." After news of her victory was announced, Sister Consilia explained that she tends to be nonpartisan in politics and admires President Eisenhower.

The nun entered the essay contest under her given name of Bonnie Jean Brown. Her real identity as a Religious was unknown to contest officials until they communicated with her to tell her she had won.

The competition was sponsored by area Democrats as a promotion venture and was open to all young women in Spokane County.

Sister Consilia is attending Holy Names College here during the summer.

AMONG WOMEN 'Forgotten' Scapular

About a year ago this week I wrote an article for this column on the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

They knot the Scapular close to their necks in the back and front; and while frequent dives into Onwase Lake do not improve the appearance of the Scapular, it stays securely on the wearer and satisfies regulations regarding its wearing.

I have discovered that Scapulars on sterling silver chains (if they are properly made to observe the ruling that the chain must be attached to the cloth) are easier for me to wear in the summer months.

Of course, I realize that if one wears the Scapular, the habit of Our Lady, one should be willing to accept the penitential aspects of such an honor but living in the world, one must also consider practical points of hygiene and appearance. Thus the chains are most acceptable in hot weather.

The Third Order of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, as part of its apostolate, distribute Scapulars and Scapular information. Any one desiring information regarding the Scapular may obtain it at the Rochester address of the Third Order, 10 Pleasant Street, Rochester 4, New York.

Couple Married In Oregon Rites

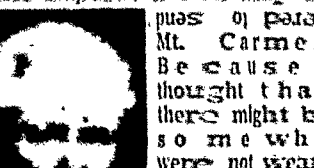

Miss Wilma Jean Olsen became the bride of John Thomas La Palma in a wedding ceremony June 21 in St. Andrew Church, Portland, Oregon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Olsen of Portland. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Leo F. La Palma of Rochester.

The Rev. Edward Larson heard the vows of the couple and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

Mrs. Snyder, one of one to any person who requested a Scapular.

As I wrote in subsequent columns, the response was amazing. After the heavy demand tapered off, the requests continued to trickle in for months.

I was particularly interested in the letters I received. Several wrote that they had almost "forgotten" about the Scapular since they had left school.

THIS ADMITTED forgetting on the part of Catholics sufficiently interested in their religion to read the diocesan newspaper prompts me to write again on this same subject.

Since the opening of Mt. Carmel High School, our own community, I have been interested to observe how many of our high school boys and girls are wearing scapulars. I have noticed that the boys seem to be particularly devoted to the Scapular.
