Minstrel Show At Memorial

The return of the Irish Minstrels to the War Memorial Auditorium on Oct. 5 this year will recall to the memory of many the minstrel shows started in the early 1920's at old St. Patrick's Cathedral parish, which were conducted by the late Professor Eugene Bonn.

The minstrels then proved to be so successful that they later had to be staged in a downtown Rochester theatre, but the minstrels were disbanded when members of St. Patrick's parish migrated and the cathedral was transferred to its present location at Flower City Pk.

THE MINSTRELS were later revived by Ray Fagan in the late 30's, who has most recently travelled about the country giving Irish Minstrel shows that have met with marked success.

When Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus heard of the success, they persuaded Fagan, who has since come to Rochester to live, to produce the Oct. 5 show at the memorial for the benefit of the various charities sponsored by the Knights.

In addition to the minstrels, there will also be a fashion display with fashions being furnished by Sibley's and the show includes a 70 and a 30 piece band, plus a men's chorus of 100 men to back up the production. A number of outstanding dancers and comedians will also be part of the show.

Fagan is also taking auditions at the present time for members of the chorus. Singers may do so by calling HI. 5-0976-M.

1500 Converts Baptized In Vietnam Ceremony

Hong Kong — (RNS)— Fifteen hundred converts were baptized at a mass ceremony at the Catholic church in Phu-Hoa, South Vietnam, a report here said.

The rites were presided over by Msgr. Guiseppe Caprio, Regent of the Apostolic Delegation in Indonesia for South Vietnam.

Phu-Hoa is only one of many centers in the Qui-Nhon vicariate where large numbers of converts are being received into the Church, the report said.

It stimated that more than 60,000 persons are now ready for baptism in the vicariate, where Catholic officials are quoted as saying that conversions are being made at the rate of 3,000 a month.

Priest Turns Down Quiz Winner's $8,000

Rome—(NC)—Viewers of the popular Italian television program "Lascia o Raddopia" (Double or Quit) witnessed a contest of generosity between a priest and the quiz program's winner of $8,000.

Amabile Battistello, who won the money for answering all questions put to her about popular music, announced that she would give the entire amount to the Pro Juventute Home for crippled and incapacitated children.

She had regained her sight through transplantation of the cornea of Father Carlo Gnocchi, founder of the home, who willed the corneas of his eyes to two children shortly before his death.

AS SOON as Father Franco Ripamonti, director of the home, heard of Miss Battistello's intention, he rushed to the stage and announced that the home could not accept the offer.

He said that the young lady would one day have to think of making her home and would need the money she had won.

In place of her generous offer, he accepted a votive lamp to be placed before the tomb of Father Gnocchi as a symbol of the light which Miss Battistello had regained with her sight.

SOLVING MOTHER'S HEARING PROBLEM ALSO SOLVED FAMILY'S PROBLEMS

By: Don Galloway

"Do you know what?" a little girl said to me recently. "Daddy and Mommy and I are so much happier since Mommy's been wearing your Hearing Glasses!" This little girl wasn't kidding. Before her mother had been introduced to new Beltone Hearing Glasses, she had a terrible time getting along with her family. She just couldn't understand them. But when Beltone Hearing Glasses took over, this lady experienced a remarkable change. She could hear clearly again with BOTH ears, just as nature intended, and she could understand her family and friends once again. Perhaps this is what you've been looking for, too, if hearing loss is taking advantage of you. Come in for a free demonstration. Or better yet call for FREE home demonstration. Under The 'Big Top'

Vatican Hookup Sought By NBC

Vatican City — (Radio, NC) — The date of the second special broadcast by His Holiness Pope Pius XII to cloistered nuns throughout the world has been changed from July 20 to July 26. The other broadcasts will take place on July 19 and Aug. 2, as originally scheduled.

The National Broadcasting Company in the U.S. and the Canadian Catholic Broadcasting System have joined networks in many parts of the worldin asking for hookups with Vatican Radio for the papal broadcasts of the so-called "invisible audiences."

Destruction Derby Set At Fairgrounds

It will be strictly legal and sportsmanlike for the stock car drivers to deliberately smash into each other on tonight's (Friday's) program at the Monroe County Fairgrounds.

The ripping of metal will take place in two events added to the regular program—a "destruction derby" and a "Figure-Eight" race. In the derby the drivers will keep banging into each other until one driver is left running. He will be the winner.
