New Camp Building Blessed

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY of Camp Columbus, Owasco Lake marked by an Anniversary Mass marking the founding by Monsignor Frederick G. Straub, pastor of St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn, included blessing of a new building. Participating are: (from left) Rev. Gerald T. Connor, master of ceremonies; Rev. Robert Kreckel, deacon; Rev. Raymond J. Wahl, celebrant and Rev. Frederick Straub, nephew of Monsignor Straub, subdeacon. (A. G. Tarby photo).

At Camp Columbus

By JOHN QUINN

Auburn—"I will go unto the altar of God, to God the joy of my youth." Each morning at Mass, the campers at Camp Columbus, Owasco Lake, place themselves in the hands of Almighty God. In supplication they asked Him for the strength to be good winners and good losers in sports, and to be obedient to the men placed in charge of their safety.

A flower blooms according to the amount of water it receives. During the day, the campers receive such refreshments to aid in their spiritual development by receiving the rosary and by making visits to the Blessed Sacrament.

In addition to the growth of the soul, good wholesome physical training and recreation is necessary for the development of a truly Christian child. This is seen to by our Sport Department and our Waterfront Department.

During the second week of the season, the rainy weather failed to dampen the spirits of the campers. On the athletic field, the sixteen league championship was captured by John Mary's "Ice-Twisters." The camp's All Star team won its second big game, defeating St. Mary's on the Lake, Ontario. In a close practice game, the counsellors eked out a 97 victory over the All Stars.

ON THE WATERFRONT, Seniors and Juniors alike enjoyed water polo and thrilling canoe races. Red Cross Swimmer Certificates were awarded to Mike Sargent, Jim Benson, John Minge, Dick Tomasho, Louis Pelligrino, John G. Walsh and Bill Cowney. Twelve other boys were able to earn their Intermediate and Beginner cards.

The campers have taken a great interest in a handicraft program, under the direction of William Donnelly. They have also been kept busy with campfires, hikes, plays, boxing, and volleyball.

At the end of each day, the boys return to the Chapel to thank God for all that He has given them, and to beg Him to watch over them until they see Him again on the following morning.

Ordination and Wedding Donations, Que. — (NC) — An ordination to the priesthood was a feature of the four-day regional Eucharistic Congress of Portneuf and 14 couples were married in a mass open air ceremony.

Key to lots o' livin'... BUY A HOME — FIRST

Whether you're newlyweds or old-marrieds — nothing is quite so satisfying as your own home — in the environment that suits you every wish: schools, churches, playgrounds, convenient shopping areas — neighbors with whom you have common interests and ambitions. Aside from the joys of home-ownership, you'll find your own home a great economy and enhancing investment. That is, if you buy carefully. And by buying through your Realtor you can be sure of buying carefully. Real estate values are his business. He knows the history of every neighborhood, its zoning restrictions, its reputation, its future. He can locate the ideal home for you — tell you all about its construction — tell you more than you could learn by cold "house-hunting" in a month of Sundays. Remember, not every broker is a Realtor. This Board and the National Association of Real Estate Boards require that every Realtor subscribe to a strict Code of Ethics. Put your confidence in him. For a list of Realtors in this area, call LOcust 2-4590.
