ANNUNCIATION parish's "biggest" outdoor festival will be conducted on the parking lot on Norton St. tonight, Friday, July 25 and tomorrow night, Saturday, July 26. The Rev. Albert L. Simonetti is pastor. Committees have been working for weeks to arrange this first attempt at conducting a festival on a large scale. About 16 booths will be open and many will include a variety of food so that those attending can eat the evening meal by patronizing these booths. Tonight, Friday, the grounds will be open at 7 p.m., tomorrow night at 8 p.m. Games will be provided for children and a merry-go-round will be on hand Saturday. Committee workers are being directed by the Rev. Joseph I. Notnagle, assistant pastor. The public is invited.

HOLY GHOST CHURCH priests and parishioners invite the public to their annual chicken dinner on Coldwater Rd., Tuesday and Wednesday evening, August 12 and 13. A new kitchen and a cooled enlarged dining room will make the dinner guests more comfortable than before. Dinner or no waiting for service between 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. is promised. Home cooked food, and fresh vegetables and homemade pies served family style, are offered as "a bargain treat for $2.00." Many improvements have been made to the parish property including an impressive Memorial Lourdes Grotto. Carnival events will be staged on the new blacktopped parking area. A special welcome awaits all who patronize this well known picnic for the benefit of the building fund, according to the Rev. Albert J. Geiger, pastor.

Friday Speaker

REV. CHARLES BENNETT will speak at the first Friday Luncheon Club meeting, August 1 in Hotel Sheraton. Assistant pastor of St. Mary Church, Rochester, he has served at St. Charles Borromeo and St. Patrick's. He will be presented by the Rev. E. Leo McManus, moderator. Joseph Altansi, chairman, said all men who receive Holy Communion on that day are eligible to attend the luncheon at 12:15 p.m.

Mark Golden Jubilee Nazareth College

MIRIAM MRS. LOUIS MATHIAS of 215 Ridgeway Ave. observed their 50th wedding anniversary, July 12. They assisted at Mass in Sacred Heart Cathedral celebrated by the Rev. James J. Marvin. A dinner at Crescent Beach Hotel and reception followed. The couple was married in St. Joseph Church, Rochester, July 8, 1908.

Shortsville Pastor

The 1929 fire. Father bought the property located next to the church, now down the buildings on the property and transformed it to a beautiful landscape lawn that adds to the beauty of the church.

Four years ago he had the inside of the church completely redone, including the installation of a new altar at the cost of $15,000. In 1955, the parish was able to purchase a store in Manchester which is used for Sunday Mass and as a parish center.

The population of the two communities totals about 1200 people. The parish has a total of about 30 families in residence of about 1000. Father Napier arrived.

That the people in Shortsville and Manchester think much of their pastor is reflected in two ways. The collections when he first arrived amounted to $5 a week. They now average over $200.

And when there is work to be done in the church the men of the parish do it willingly for their priest without any hesitation.

Father Napier also has become what probably all priests in similar parishes have to become—a general all-around handyman. This includes a lawn-mower repairman, gardener, etc.

HAVING NO parish school, the problem of sending the children are brought up knowing their religion has been successfully resolved by this friendly man whose spirit helps his parish.

He conducts release time classes for both the primary and high school children.

"The first four grades are taught each Sunday," Father said. "The others are taught on Monday and Tuesday. During the summer, the sisters of St. Joseph conduct a summer school for three weeks," he added.

There is very little juvenile delinquency in either town, but "none of the few incidents that have occurred involved any of the Catholic children," he said. "A true tribute of the work of this country priest, in seeing that they get a solid Catholic education."

In addition to conducting the affairs of the parish, Father Napier also has a parish cemetery, named in honor of St. Rita, under his supervision. This supervision includes laying out the plots and maintaining the mausoleum at the cemetery, which he had constructed.

Students, Faculty Visit Music Camp

Thirty Summer session music students at Nazareth College, accompanied by two members of the faculty, Sister Helen Anne, instrumental instructor and Sister Claudia, vocal instructor, visited the Tally-Ho Music Camp, last Saturday to observe the work done by the young campers.

They attended the final rehearsal of the Tally-Ho orchestra, which was preparing for one of the regular Sunday evening concerts, open to the families and friends of the campers. Others interested are also invited to attend.

Guest conductor of the orchestra was Joseph Wincenc, director of instrumental music, Buffalo State Teachers College. The sister students were especially impressed with the rendition of Brahms Symphony No. 1 in C minor.

Director of the camp is Dorothy Bradley, who with her husband, the late Fred I. Bradley, were founders of the music camp. Camp manager is Robert Wadsworth, director of high school vocal music at Newark Central School. The orchestra and the band are under the direction of a different guest conductor each week.

The camp is located on a farm 25 miles south of Rochester in the Bristol Hills. Following the rehearsal, the Nazareth College group made a tour of the camp and were served refreshments by the camp staff.

June Graduate Wins Fellowship

Jeanette Martino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Martino, Solway, N. Y., a 1958 graduate of Nazareth College of Rochester, has just received a fellowship which she has been granted a trustee's fellowship from the Nazareth College of Rochester.

She is planning to pursue graduate work in English at the university. Her fields of concentration at Nazareth were English and French. She was the president of the student body. She also held membership in the Alliance Française of Rochester and the National Council of Teachers of English.
