

Church Building Rises In Auburn

Culver Road Funeral Home Taken Over By Mattles

Mattie Funeral Service, Inc., located at 300 Cumberland Street for the last 45 years, at 833 Culver Road, according to John W. Mattie, President. They have been necessitated so that the new congested downtown area could be cleared to make way for a section of the inner loop, soon to be constructed.

JACK MATTIE JOHN MATTIE

In making the announcement, Mattie emphasized that the same consideration and efficient Mattie Service will continue, and that all business will be conducted from the Culver Road address, starting with July 28. Though the new location is just a step from East Main Street, spacious surroundings permit an atmosphere of quiet dignity.

In January 1937 the incorporation of the firm of Mattie Funeral Service and that his son, John A., better known as Jack, had become a partner member of the firm, holding the office of treasurer and is the licensed manager.

The firm Mattie is associated with funeral service since 1889 when John A. Mattie established the original business at 142 Clinton Avenue North, opposite Pleasant Street.

12 Auburn Council Has Card Party

The Auxiliary of Auburn Council 207, Knights of Columbus, sponsored a card party and covered dish supper Wednesday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Keese on the west shore of Onwascote Lake.

At Camp Columbus

By ROBERT BUCKLAND

Auburn — As we reach the halfway point of the 1958 camping season, it offers an outline of a typical Columbus day here at Camp Columbus. On typical days, the campers are in their tents or cabins. On typical days, the campers are in their tents or cabins. On typical days, the campers are in their tents or cabins.

THE MORNING program finds Bob directing his boys in cleaning up their cabin, encouraging them with the idea of the big party that awaits the clearest cabin at the end of the week.

At 10 Bob hurries to the water front to give swimming instructions to the Junior boys. Aided by Bob's demonstrations, encouragement and great amount of patience, his "boys" soon discover that swimming is not so difficult after all.

After supper, Bob takes charge of the Camp Columbus anglers on the dock. When the fishermen have finished trying their luck Bob hurries to open store for the campers' evening pop and candy. He then joins the other

On the diamond, the senior sport leader was won by the Marlboroughs led by their captain, John Walsh. The Columbus All-Stars, sparked by Jim Addona and Bill Abel, defeated the new Sacred Heart baseball team from Auburn 8-1.

On the waterfront even rained to dampen the spirit of the swimmers. A water safety sign's card was awarded to Dave McEnany while Red Cross swimmers' cards were earned by Pat Siconolfi, Gary Burkhart and John Wiley. Red Cross skill cards went to 12 other swimmers.

An afternoon "free" pool doesn't seem so free when there is a story to prepare for the evening campfire and a bedtime story to prepare for the cabin.

After supper, Bob takes charge of the Camp Columbus anglers on the dock. When the fishermen have finished trying their luck Bob hurries to open store for the campers' evening pop and candy. He then joins the other

In 1914 Andrew's son, John W. Mattie, now president of the firm became associated with his father and in 1923 became a junior partner. The firm then took the name of A. J. Mattie & Son.
