Romanian Bishop Said Arrested

Belgrade — (RNS) — Bishop Aaron Marton of Alba Julia in Communist Romania has been deprived of freedom of movement by the Bucharest government, according to Blagovesni, the only Catholic magazine published in this country.

The publication said the action against Bishop Marton has greatly restricted his activities and amounts to virtual house arrest.

It said he is permitted to offer Mass in the Bucharest Cathedral and in the chapel of his residence, "but everything else is forbidden to him."

any of the three towns the parishes serve."

The only priest serving both parishes both Summer and Winter, Father Harding is kept busy in the Gotham Central and Mid-dlesex Central Schools.

"Here again, the people show their cooperative spirit. They transport the children to the re-lease-time classes since they realize the importance of religious training for the children."

DURING THE WINTER, members of the Altar and Rosary and Holy Name Societies sponsor affairs for the parish, which are usually held in the rectory at Stanley. When financially able to do so, Father Harding hopes to put a heating system in the new addition at Rushville, which will then be used as a parish center.

Since his arrival at Stanley, Father Harding has been able to accomplish many things in addition to the Rushville addition. Among these were the refurbishing of the rectory and a new heating plant and new floor for St. Theresa's. One of his parishioners, Mrs. Elizabeth Dallor presented the church a $1,500 organ for St. Theresa's.

The church in Stanley, which is debt free was built in 1875 and St. Mary's was built in the 1890's after a fire destroyed the edifice built in 1875. St. Mary's has a slight debt due to the cost of the new addition.

INSIDE VIEW of St. Mary's Church, Rushville, shows the old section of the church in the foreground and the recently built addition in the background.

ONE OF THE rural parish's best known families, the Muc-chie's, gave four sons and one daughter to the service of the church. They are Reverend Fathers John F., Charles E., Joseph T., C.S.B. and William Muckle, C.S.B. and Sister Mary Charles of the Sisters of Mercy. During the Winter, Father Harding says one Mass in St. Theresa's and another at St. Mary's. During the Summer, he says three Masses each Sunday, one at Stanley, and the other two at Rushville, in order to accommodate the vacation people from Canandaigua area.

Sister Angela Joseph Requiem Mass Offered

Requiem Mass was celebrated yesterday, Thursday, Aug. 7, 1958 at Nazareth Motherhouse, East Ave. for Sister Angela Joseph Moynihan, S.S.J., who died Aug. 5 in St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira.

A native of Batavia, Sister Angela entered the Order of the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1911 after first graduating from St. Charles Institute, Rochester, now Rochester Institute of Technology.

Celebrant of the Solemn High Requiem Mass was Rt. Rev. Monsignor John S. Randall. He was assisted by Rev. Gerard Krieg, deacon, Rev. Harry Matoney, S.J., sub-deacon and Rev. William H. Shannon, master of ceremonies.

Present in the Sanctuary were Rt. Rev. Monsignor Louis W. Edelman and Rev. E. Joseph Esser.

She taught and served as dietitian at St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira for 11 years. Afterwards, she taught in St. Paul's School, Chicago, St. Mary's, Canandaigua, and St. Monica's, Sacred Heart and Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Rochester. Her last assignment was at Immaculate Conception School in Rochester.

Lebanon's New President

Beirut — (NC) — Lebanon's President-elect, Gen. Fuad Chehab, is a Maronite Rite Catholic known for his attachment to his alma-mater—the Marist Brothers' school at Juneh—and as the benefactor of social and educational projects.

But above all else, he is now looked to as the man who may bring an end to this country's civil war and facilitate withdrawal of U.S. Marines.

In Washington Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said that the U.S. would remove the troops landed in Lebanon last month if asked to withdraw by Lebanon's new government.

In electing Gen. Chehab the Parliament of this half-Christian, half-Muslim nation adhered to the tradition that the president must be a Maronite Catholic.

This tradition has its basis in the fact that Maronite Rite Catholics form the largest single religious group in the country. According to the same unwritten law, the Prime Minister is always a Sunni Moslem. The constitution provides that representation in Parliament is decided on a religious basis, not one of political parties.

The government and opposition forces joined in backing the President-elect, who has the confidence of both Catholics and Muslims. Maronite Rite Patriarch Paul Jjeuch of Antioch, particularly praised the General as the only man who can restore peace and security to strife-torn Lebanon.

General Chehab was born in 1903 at Ghazir, in the heart of the Maronite community in central Lebanon. His, it is re-

Handicapped Pilgrimage To Lourdes Scheduled

New York — Opportunity for the handicapped to visit Lourdes during its centennial year is made available by Catholic Travel Service, 62 W. 46 St., New York 36, N. Y.

This internationally known travel organization catering to religious travel, has made arrangements with the Irish Airlines to fly a group of handicapped persons on Sept. 24 to Ireland.

HERE they will join a party of handicapped Irish pilgrims and handicapped Irish pilgrims and will continue on their flight by Aer Lingus Viscount Aircraft direct to Lourdes.

They will be met by the Branches of the Hospital de Notre Dame de Lourdes and conveyed to the Hospital of the Seven Dolours where reservations have been made for them.

Facilities have been arranged for their participation in the various pilgrimage exercises, including the blessing of the sick, the prayers at the grotto and the immersion in the Baths. Medical and nursing care will be provided for them on route and in Lourdes a chaplain will assist the pilgrims in their spiritual needs throughout. The flight is open to adults as well as children.

In addition to a medical and nursing staff travelling with the group, a number of helpers will also be available to care for the pilgrims and arrangements can be made for a parent or relative to travel also.

Further information can be had by writing Catholic Travel Service, New York 36, N.Y.

Ancient Balkan Church Discovered In Forest

Belgrade — (RNS) — Ruins of what experts say may be the oldest Christian church in the Balkans have been found near Lake Ohrid in Macedonia, close to the Albanian frontier.

Apparently those of a three-aisled church, the ruins were partly underground and were discovered accidentally by forest workers. Archaeologists have uncovered the floor, strewn with priceless mosaics in eleven colors, a baptistry and traces of nearby cemetery.
