Men Serve Early Mass

New Iberia, La. — (NC) — The 7 a.m. weekday Mass at St. Peter's church here is served by men — and not just because the altar boys didn't show up.

The men want it that way. At the suggestion of Msgr. Warren L. Boudreaux, pastor, about 30 men have organized to serve Mass regularly.

There are no meetings or rehearsals. Co-chairmen handle the scheduling. Most members are former altar boys and novices, have learned by study at home and then serve with a veteran. Each pair of men serves three days a week once every six weeks.

Members of the congregation say it is edifying to see grown men giving their time at the altar. The men themselves agree it is a rewarding experience.
