Poland Irons Out Church-State Row

Warsaw - (RNS) - A Church-State crisis sparked by a recent police raid on the shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa at Jasna Gora monastery has been eased by new agreements between representatives of the Communist re-gime and the Catholic hierarchy, official government sources reported here-

One of the agreements, accord | terials circulated by an Institute ing to the Polish Press Agency, for National Vows organized by provides that in the future Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski to church publications intended for foster a movement of spiritual general distribution will be sub re-dedication among Polish Cathmitted for clearance to the Of olics. fice of Press Control.

THE RELIEF goods which Exempted from censorship, came under the commission's however, would be all church scrutiny had been donated maindocuments addressed exclusively ly by American Catholics through Catholic Relief Servicesto the clergy. National Catholic Welfare Con-

ANOTHER AGREEMENT ference and were said to' be stipulated that shipments of worth about $400,000. charitable goods consigned to the

They had been consigned to Polish hierarchy from Catholics abroad would be distributed to Cardinal Wyszynski, but were alvictims of recent floods in South- lowed to pile up on Polish docks ern Poland by a relief committee because of the dispute over the set up in Cracow, with three question of distribution. The gov-Church representatives joining ernment meanwhile levied a high the committee. customs duty which Cardinal Wyszynski said the Church was

56,241

LAST WEEK'S

PAID

CIRCULATION

The government had demand not able to meet. ed that the goods be handled by official agencies, while the hierarchy-insisted they should be channelled through parish organizations.

The police raid on the Jasna Gora monastery, conducted by the Paulite Fathers, took place on July 21. Seized by the police were printing equipment and quantities of pamphlets which the Communist press had immediately branded as "anti-State." Actually they were ma-

New Hospital For Children

St. Louis - (NC) - There's nothing to fear in the operating room of the world's first Catholic children's hospital, this young patient learns after long study of the toy operating room shown here. It is one of many "props" used at Cardinal Glennon Memorial Hospital for Children in St. Louis, Mo., to acquaint children with hospital facilities,

'Change Neurotic To Healthy Sinner'

Collegeville, Minn. - (NC) - the relationship with a patient is ferent from that of the psycho-The job of the psychotherapist is to restore the patient's psycho therapist, who treats the patient "to heal neurotics," not "to con- logical integrity." to discover the psychological vert sinners or to reform scoun-"To put it crudely," he said,

Demi-annual linen and bedding Sale drels," a University of Minnesota "the secular therapist's job is psychologist told 40 clergymen to help the neurotic sinner beat a pastoral workshop at St. John's University here, come a healthy one."

Dr. Paul E. Meehl, the psychol-to physical an psychic health, Dr.

"the goal of the psychotherapist a person who has committed a the sinner to spiritual and moral "It is most disheartening to learn tomary in Catholic schools such when he enters into a therapeu- ; series of sinful acts is quite dif health,

gious statues would be removéď causes for the actions of the "unhealthy sinner."

It is the psychiatrist's job to help restore the disturbed person

DR. MEEHL said that the role Meehl said, while the clergyogist, told the chergymen that of the clergyman in dealing with man's responsibility is to restore

'Religious Overtones'

BULLETIN - The Pequannock Public School Board this week rejected the local Catholic school's offer of free classrooms, Public school pupils will go on split 'half time' schedules this September.

Pequannock, N.J. - (RNS) - The pastor of a Catholic church here refused to sign a $10,000 rental contract for public school use of classroom space in the parish school, offering instead the free use of the facilities, when a public school board member objected to a contract provision.

Father John H. Dericks, pastor of Holy Spirit church, ho helped prepare the contract, said he acted "to end a conroversy with religious overtones."

Under the contract the town-ship school board would pay and talk of the almighty dollar,"

$10,000 to rent four classrooms "It was even more embarrassand two staff rooms in the ing to our children," the priest church's parish school. Elemen observed, "when suggested they tary classes in the public school use separate lavatories and corhere are overcrowded. ridors. The children did not mind two years ago. They often mincontract stated the gle better than their elders." church would provide heat,

TWO YEARS AGO the board light, and janiforial service for used three classrooms in the pathe rooms and that all relirochial school without charge. Although objections to statues were raised then, the images re-

SIBLEY'S, Rochester 4. N.Y.

i me the Semi-Annual & & CC $10

Ernest Hill, a member of the mained. This year's contract propublic school hoard, objected viding for their removal was to a contract provision for drawn to avoid such objections. joint use of lavatories and Father Derick's letter said corridors by the public and further: "The Board of Educaparochial students.

The

tion is hereby offered the use In a letter to the school board of four classrooms and other faexplaining his refusal to sign the cilities free of charge." But it agreement, Father Dericks said: added that all furnishings cusof new controversy, innueridos as statues were to remain.

Your Religion Is Showing! Davao, The Philippines-It's easy to tell a Christian from a pagan among the tribes here -the Christian tattoos his religion all over himself.

CONTRICT, JOITHINAS

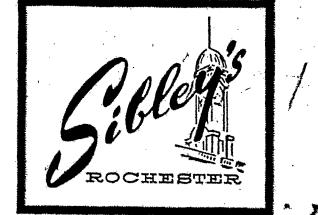

Friday, Aug. 8, 1958

"The Mati tribe goes for tatoos in a big way, but they are strictly religious in nature and are designated for certain areas- of the body fonly," reports Father James T. Ferry, Maryknoll Missioner of New Rochelle, N.Y.

"For instance, the right leg is reserved for St. James, St. Sebastian is found on the left leg. St. Michael goes on the right arm. On the chest is a crucifix with many Latin expressions and on the back is found another crucifix.

Although tradition has it that St. Francis Xavier offered Mass here enroute to Japan, this area has long suffered from lack of priests. Earlier this year, Maryknoll assumed responsibility for some 3,200 square miles of Davoa, with a population of 365.000 people who speak a Visavan dialect.

The famous Quaker Imperial lace tablecloths for really dressed up tables, and easy care. Designs inspired by traditional hand-made laces but adapted to machine reproduction. Choose snow white or rich earu for the loveliest table you've ever set 70x90" reg. 12.95 8.95 70x108" .. reg. 14.95 10.95

Not shown: Festive woven rami with rayon tablecloths and napkins in pink, yellow, agua or toast, threaded with while. 19x19" napkins60¢ 50r

Mountain Laurel shimmering rayon-with-cotton tablecloths and napkins billiant with Mylar metallic yarns (they won't tarnishi) in white with gold or silver.

52x52" cloth4.98. 1.99

Our Radiance cloths in white rayon with cotton striped in non-tarnishin a Mylar metallic bands in rich colors copper, gold, pink, or aqua.

52x52" cloth	62×80"	4.99
52x70"	62x108"	7.49
17×17" napkins	50¢	· .

Sibley's Linens, Third Floor; Irondequoit, Eastway, Southtown, Newark

WRITE OR PHONE HAMILTON 44000 - SIBLEY, LINDSAY & CURR CO.

Never has oyster white Belgian liner looked so pretty as it does on these Swiss scalloped cloths. It's our Sovereign cloth, stitched in white, pink, yellow, aqua.

52x52"	cloth	60x104"
	4.98 2.99	60" round
	60x80	7.98 4.99	· · · ·

Damask is so rich and so traditional, yet this lovely cotton and rayon cloth is as modern as today . . . sympathizes beautifully with period settings. The pattern is one of the Rose designs against a wide satin border, comes in delicate pastels, white, pink, green, gold and grey. Hand-hemmed; woven combed yarns.

64x86" cloth, 8 napkins, reg. 15.89 9.99 64x104", 12 napkins 60x124", 12 napkins reg. 24.98 19.99 reg. 18.98 14.99