Public is invited. Mrs. John Hoehn, chairman of the kitchen committee; Mrs. Richard will also be welcomed.

Basilians Moved To New Posts

Two veteran Aquinas Institute teachers have been assigned new posts according to Very Rev. George B. Flahiff, C.S.B., superior general of the Basilian Fathers.

REV. ANTHONY LOCOCO

Rev. Anthony P. Lococo, C.S.B. has been appointed superior and principal of St. Charles College, Sudbury, Ontario. Father Lococo joined the faculty of Aquinas Institute in Sept., 1938, a year after the Basilian Fathers took over the administration of the boys Catholic high school.

IN 1940 HE was chosen head of the Latin department, a post he held until this year. He has often been chosen to serve on evaluating committees of the Middle States Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

Many teachers and principals have observed his classes to study his successful methods of teaching. In recent years he has conducted seminars in education for Basilian Scholastics at Strawberry Island, Summer home for the seminarians.

Rev. John M. Wilson, C.S.B., head of the science department and moderator of the Missions, has been transferred to Our Lady of the Assumption High School, Lethbridge, Alberta.

Under Father Wilson's direction Aquinas students raised over $100,000 for the Catholic missions throughout the world. He was a director of the regional science exhibition and was a member of several local and national scientific organizations.

Requiem Offered For Mrs. Reeves

Mrs. Mae M. Deegan Reeves, formerly of 291 Nantasket Rd., Rochester and the Rev. Francis J. Toney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius F. Toney of 58 Evans St. Geneva are the priests from here.

Father Toney celebrated his First Solemn Mass in St. Francis de Sales, Geneva and Father Blaker in St. John the Evangelist Church, Greece.

Also enroute with them are Fathers Walter Maxey of New Rochelle, N.Y.; Dennis Lalley, Uniontown, Pa.; John Rich, Chicago and Charles Collins, Rochester, Mass.

THEY WERE among a class of 48 ordained June 14, at Maryknoll, N.Y., by Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York.

Father Collins said the newly ordained priests will be among 12 missionaries doing pioneer work in Davao province of Mindanao. The territory, 3,200 square miles, with a population of 700,000, comprise a new mission field given Maryknoll by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

"We consider it a great privilege to help open up a new mission area," Father Collins said before his departure. He explained that usually only experienced missionaries are given such assignments.

The Maryknollers will cover the mission territory—some of it uncultivated jungles—by jeep, motorcycle and on foot, Father Collins said.

2 Area Missioners Head For Pacific

Two newly ordained Maryknoll missionaries from the Diocese of Rochester are among six who left Seattle, Wash., aboard the S.S. Ocean Evelyn for the Philippines. There their assignment will take them to new mission territories and unexplored jungle areas.

Superior of the new mission field is Father Joseph Regan of New Bedford, Mass. According to reports the departing priests have received from Father Regan the principal missionary work in the new area thus far has been the organization of three parishes by the Quebec Mission Society.

Sodalists Will Attend School

Sodalities of the Diocese of Rochester will be represented at one of the nine different sessions of the 28th annual Summer school of Catholic Action sponsored by the National Sodalists Service Center at The Queen's Work, St. Louis, Mo.

Sodalists of this diocese will go to the sessions to be held at Fordham University in New York City the week of Aug. 17. The other eight schools will be held at key cities throughout the country. In this year of 1958—the centennial of Lourdes—the late Samuel Cardinal Stritch suggested the theme: "I am the Immaculate Conception."

Rev. Richard Torrey, Rev. Edward Sienkiewicz and the Rev. Richard Earl, diocesan sodality directors will attend with priests and sisters from many parishes and school groups as well as their delegates.

ADULT AND college Sodalists will attend the Sodalists Congress of the Lay Apostolate to be held at the Hotel Commodore in New York the week of Aug. 31.

More today than ever before there is a pressing need for a militant Catholic laity, a laity to stand for principle and one which is trained and capable of leading others. The school is designed to provide just such training. The student receives courses of instruction to increase his faith, to inspire and motivate him to the fuller Catholic life. The apostolic life so badly needed in the world today.

For many years the Diocese of Rochester has been represented at the Summer school. Last year more than 150 attended from the various parishes and schools.

'Italian Day' Listed At Shrine
The Most Reverend Joseph M. Perricone, Auxiliary Bishop of New York will preside at ceremonies to be held on Sunday, August 24, the Italian Lourdes Pilgrimage Day at the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs at Auriesville.

Public Masses will be celebrated at the Shrine from 6:00 o'clock in the morning until 12:00 o'clock noon inclusive.

The Stations of the Cross will be held at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon with the beautiful outdoor Procession of the Blessed Sacrament to the Shrine at 2:30 in the afternoon. Blessing of the Blessed Sacrament will be given before the Lourdes Grotto in the Shrine.

The climax of the pilgrimage will be the Missa Cantata at 4:15 o'clock in the afternoon. Bishop Perricone will preside and preach at the afternoon Mass in the Great Coliseum.

ROCHESTERIAN GRADUATES IN TELEPHONE CLASS
Gilbert A. Henner of 33 Kiniry Drive, Rochester, is one of those being honored here today as a member of the first graduating class of the Management Development Program for executives of independent telephone companies, sponsored by the United States Independent Telephone Association.

Henner is general accountant of the Rochester Telephone Corporation at Rochester.

26 Women To Get Sister's Habit

Twenty-six young women will receive the habit of the Sisters of the Third Order Regular of St. Francis of Allegheny at services today, Friday, at St. Elizabeth's Motherhouse, Allegheny.

Included are Sister M. Joseph Monica, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frascino of St. Helen's Parish, Rochester, and Sister Leo Mary, daughter of Mr. Thomas G. Cany of St. Mary's Parish, Batavia.

Among the 32 novices who will take their first vows tomorrow, Aug. 16, is Sister M. Francis Teresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sylvester of Holy Name Parish, Nunda. Twenty-two Sisters will take final vows on the same day.

Very Rev. Celsus Wheeler, O.P.M., Provincial of Holy Name Province will preside in the sanctuary of the new Queen of the Franciscan Order Chapel in the four million dollar motherhouse recently erected in Allegheny by the 1000 member sisterhood.

For many years the Diocese of Rochester has been represented at the Summer school. Last year more than 150 attended from the various parishes and schools.

Aquinas Grads
Four additional June graduates of Aquinas Institute won academic honors. It was reported today by Rev. Leon G. Hart, C.S.B., vice-principal.

Frank S. DeLucia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen DeLucia of Annetonville parish and Peter M. Russo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Russo of St. Francis Xavier parish were awarded New York State Regents Scholarships. This is in addition to the eight state scholarships announced previously.

Robert J. Bishop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Bishop of St. Ambrose was granted a State Veterans Administration scholarship.

John G. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aloisius Wood of St. Andrew's parish, received a congressional appointment to Annapolis Naval Academy. The appointment was made by Rep. Kenneth B. Keating.
