Church Burns Mortgage

Sodus—Burning of the church's mortgage was celebrated by the Rev. William Lammers, pastor of the Church of the Epiphany, Sodus and his parishioners at a parish picnic held at the Sodus Fruit Farm.

REV. WILLIAM LAMMERS

The parish picnic under the chairmanship of Robert VanDeVelde also marked the success of the Auction-Bazaar held in July which helped to make the final payment on the mortgage.

Trustees are John Doyle and Martin Leckinger. The entire church property was declared completely debt free and Father Lammers announced he is planning to make some necessary improvements.

IN 1954 under the direction of Rev. James O'Connell, now of Ontario, the parishioners cleared out the basement of the rectory and made it into a parish hall. It is now used for religious instructions, meetings, and suppers. The Holy Name Society with Robert Zecher, president and the Rosary-Altar Society headed by Mrs. Sigmund Plunka, president, meet in the parish hall.

Other pastors carrying on the work were the Rev. Daniel D. O'Rourke and the Rev. Ralph Mayers. It was recalled.

Chairmen Named
By Corning KC
Grand Knight

Corning — New chairmen for Corning Council, Knights of Columbus, were announced at a meeting of the Knights.

Grand Knight James Bothe reported that the following persons were appointed.

Albert Connaughton, general chairman; T. V. Hanley, Catholic activities; W. W. Babcock, fraternal activities; J. V. Bothe, membership; Richard Keck, Council activities; Eugene Gibson, public relations; and James Johnston, youth activities.

Joseph Sullivan and Mr. Connaughton were named to the permanent home association of the Council.

Edward Klaus, district Deputy Grand Knight, of Elmira, spoke briefly at the meeting and praised John Cassin, Joseph Dunbeck and Charles Houston, Council trustees, for the contributions they have made to the Council.

Dudley McLaughlin, chairman for the K of C stag party, the "Fodor-Orting" Sept. 21, reported that tickets may be secured by contacting him or by visiting the K of C Home.

In other committee reports, Mr. Hanley sited a corporate Communion breakfast will be held in Bath late in October. Joseph Sliney of Bath will serve as co-chairman. Further details will be announced he said.

Frank Diliberto reported that teams have been organized in preparation for the Euchre tournament to be held at the Home during the first week in September.

Willoughby Babcock and Joseph Daley were given a vote of thanks for their work in producing "a fine" monthly Catholic bulletin.

A second vote of appreciation was made for Council members who have been faithful in attending memorial services for deceased brothers.

Grail Started
Singapore—(RNS)—Two Chinese women—Clara Sun and May Ruth Wong—have started a branch here of the Grail, Catholic organization of lay women who devote their lives to the lay apostolate.

Women Volunteers
Topic For DCCW

The contributions of women volunteers—motivated by spiritual concerns—to the improvement of their communities and the nation—will be reviewed at the 20th national convention of the National Council of Catholic Women, September 23 to 25 in St. Louis.

A delegation from the Diocese of Rochester is being organized. Official delegate from the Rochester Diocesan Council is Mrs. F. P. Hommel of Watkins Glen with Miss Stella Zawadzki of Rochester, alternate.

Some 10,000 delegates are expected at the five-day meeting being held in St. Louis, auditorium at the invitation of Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis and the St. Louis Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women.

NCCW EXECUTIVE Secretary Margaret Mealey announced that Monsignor Paul F. Tanner, general secretary of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, parent body of NCCW, is invited to discuss "Women's Service to the Church."

He will be joined by four women noted for their personal careers of service: Jane Hoey, New York and Washington, D. C., director of the Kerby Foundation and former director of the Bureau of Public Assistance of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Mrs. Floyd W. Lee, San Mateo, New Mexico, U. S. delegate to the Inter-American Commission of Women; Sister Maria del Rey, public relations director for Maryknoll Sisters; and Congresswoman Leonor Sullivan, St. Louis.

Miss Hoey's topic is woman's service to the local community; Mrs. Lee's, the world community; Sister Maria del Rey, the missions; and Mrs. Sullivan, government. Miss Hoey has worked through the Kerby Foundation to encourage understanding and acceptance by Catholic laymen and women of their role in the civic life of democratic society.

Mrs. Lee was appointed to the Inter-American Commission, a specialized agency of the Organization of American States by President Eisenhower in 1952.

SISTER MARIA DEL REY entered the Maryknoll order in 1933. She is the author of Her Name is Mercy, In and Out the Andes, Nun in Red China, and Bernice Becomes a Nun.

Mrs. Sullivan, the first woman member of Congress from Missouri, was elected to her first term in 1932, as a candidate for the seat occupied by her late husband from 1930 to 1931.
