

As I Saw Red China

Little 'Red Guard' leader in a Chinese town.

Five years ago...

The young boy in the photograph is a 'Red Guard' leader. He is wearing a dark jacket and a cap, and is holding a stick. He is looking towards the camera with a serious expression. The background is dark and indistinct.

The text describes the author's experience of seeing Red China five years ago. It mentions the young boy in the photograph and the author's observations of the political and social conditions in China at that time.

"WHY do I need a safe deposit box?"

Almost everyone does! Even if you have no large block of securities or expensive jewelry, just count your hard-to-replace important personal papers, kept about the house or office, they are exposed to the triple risk of loss by misplacement, fire, theft.

Surely their number alone is a sufficient number of good reasons for renting a safe deposit box, which none but you or your agents may open, inside our fire-resistant, time-locked vaults.

Act now. You will find that the cost comes to mere pennies weekly.
