

Block Rosary System Spreads

Colombo, Ceylon — (NC) — A devotion to Our Lady similar to one conducted in the United States has been introduced here.

Archbishop Thomas B. Cooray, D.D., of Colombo has urged parishes here to use the "block system" of praying the Rosary, a devotion which began in the United States and is widely used throughout the United States. Catholics on a street or "block" gather at a predetermined time and place to recite the Rosary.

Very Rev. Waldimir B. Duhovich is pastor of the new edifice.

Following the church services a dinner was served for over 400 in the church annex. The dinner was prepared and served by the members of the Mothers Club.

Bishop Senyshyn in his talk at the banquet told the gathering in part, "There are moments in the lives of people which leave upon the memory never-to-be-erased impressions which are left for generations to come. To such memorable times, which the Lord has given us, is the dedication of the new St. Nicholas Ukrainian
