Top Enrollment At St. Andrew's

St. Andrew's preparatory seminary, Buffalo Road, counts its highest enrollment in history with a total of 289 students, Rev. Richard M. Quinn, rector, said today.

The students come from seven dioceses and one religious order. Rochester diocesan seminarians account for the bulk of the total, 159 in the high school department and 57 in the college section.

ST. ANDREW'S conducts a full four-year high school course and the first two years of college study. Students complete their college and theological studies at St. Bernard's or other major seminaries.

Besides Rochester, dioceses represented at the preparatory seminary include Syracuse, Pittsburgh, Greensburg, Albany and New York. One student is studying for the Fathers of Mercy order.

This is the first year the Pittsburgh and Greensburg dioceses have sent students to the Rochester seminary, Father Quinn said. All dormitories and classrooms were renovated during the Summer, he said.

Bishop Kearney is scheduled to offer Mass in honor of the Holy Ghost to open the scholastic year September 13 at 9:30 a.m.

Race Strife, Treason

Notre Dame, Ind. — (NC) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said here that the use of violence to maintain racial segregation is "treason to the spirit of this nation."

Secretary Mitchell declared that "the willful frustration of our law on the basis of racial prejudice" is a "shameful fact to live with."

"That frustration, that total denial of moral responsibility, has loosed upon society a flock of hatreds and sensations that shame us before the world," he added.

Secretary Mitchell spoke at the National Catholic Social Action Conference, held here at the University of Notre Dame. He analyzed the breakdown of community morality in the fields of civil rights and labor.

Referring to the segregation issue, he stated that "the law of our land may certainly be questioned, and there is an entire appeal structure made expressly for that purpose. But it cannot and must not be repudiated and dented, especially by a resort to force and brute power."

The Labor Secretary said he believes that "as long as an effort is being made" to comply with the spirit of the law in regard to integration, "efficient time should be granted to achieve the letter of the law."

"However," he said, "if there is indication that the purpose of delay is only to develop devices for thwarting the law, then the request for such a delay is an insult to the integrity of our legal system and should not be sustained."

He added: "The fact that the nation's laws have been obeyed in some places and not in others is similar if not identical character is an indication that in one place the community — its officials, its school administrators, its parents and guiding leaders like pastors and civic heads — has borne its responsibility with dignity and success, while in the other community the breakdown of leadership has been complete and frightening."

India Catholics Blamed For Red Victory

Bombay — (NC) — The apathy of the faithful was partly to blame for last year's communist election victory in Kerala, India's most Catholic state, Cardinal Gracias, Archbishop of Bombay, declared here.

Speaking at Bombay Catholic University the nation's first Cardinal made his first public mention of the Red triumph in Kerala, whose communist government has been threatening the existence of Catholic schools.

THE CARDINAL said: "While communist literature was multiplying in the state and when it was easily accessible, only a few Catholic books could be seen on the market."

"While men were dying of hunger, Christians were day dreaming behind palm trees."

Cardinal Gracias also warned that communism, which he called a "menace to humanity," is "infiltrating" the rest of the country and pointed out that the Reds are trying to create the impression that their ideology is in no way "incompatible with religion."

Attributing communist success to the effectiveness of its propaganda, he urged Catholic university students to help counter it by gaining a better knowledge of their Faith.

Catholic educational institutions are the nation's finest, he declared, and well equipped to meet the Red challenge.

THE CARDINAL spoke as violence continued in Kerala between the Reds and anticommunists. A communist attack on an anticommunist procession in the village of Koratty resulted in injuries to four Catholics and the death of another, K. P. David.

At the funeral, which brought together many formerly warring leaders of the noncommunist parties, Father Joseph Vadakkann, leader of the state's Anti-Communist Front movement, urged those "who unite to bury the dead" to "link the living against communism."

Korean Mig Pilot Enters Church

Washington — (NC) — A former North Korean pilot who delivered his Russian-built MIG fighter to United Nations forces in 1953 after a dramatic flight to freedom, has been baptized a Catholic.

Kenneth Rowe (the English version of his Korean name, Noh Kum Soki) was baptized at St. Peter's church here by Father Peter Chyang, a Korean priest studying canon law and sociology at the Catholic University of America.

On hand for the ceremony was Mr. Rowe's mother, Mrs. Siang Kum Ko. Mrs. Ko, a Catholic, entered this country last November under the "hardship" provision of the Immigration and Nationality Act. She had escaped to South Korea during the Korean war.

Father Chyang, who has been serving as confessor to the Korean woman, said that Mrs. Ko's influence and example were chiefly responsible for Kenneth's decision several months ago to enter the Church.
