Pictures Tell Story Of St. Joseph's Hospital Service To Sick

St. Joseph's Hospital as it is today. Medical and surgical divisions and patients' rooms are in buildings at top of picture. Nurses' home is towering edifice with Little Flower chapel. Service buildings provide heat, laundry, and other services essential for hospital maintenance. Original hospital was on site behind chapel now used for parking.

Elmira Hospital, founded in 1908, is up-to-date health center staffed by Sisters of St. Joseph of the Rochester Diocese.
