

Rosary Guild Member Drive Goes 'Over Top'

Auxiliary Bishop Casey announced Monday night that the sixth annual membership drive of the Rosary Guild of the Sacred Heart Cathedral had gone "over the top." He thanked the committee chairman, Mrs. Ronald J. McDonald, her co-chairmen, Mrs. Charles C. Grater and Mrs. Arthur B. O'Brien and the 173 workers for the success of the drive. Mrs. McDonald indicated a membership so far of over 1500, with an expected membership of over 1600 when all reports are in.

The Rosary Guild offers to its members and guests this program for the fiscal year 1958-1959:

Oct. 9—day of recollection at Canade Convent, Rev. J. McAssey, C.S.S.P., retreat master; Oct. 13, Ruth Roy, guest speaker "Making Budgets and Wills." Enrollment of new members; Nov. 10, Michael Cavalier, guest speaker "Meats and Housewives," Nov. 14, Rosary Guild evening card party benefit of Holy Childhood School.

Dec. 8, Christmas play presentation, pupils of Sacred Heart kindergarten; Jan. 12, Mrs. Ginni Annon, guest speaker, Forest School of Chalm representative; Blessing of expectant mothers; Feb. 9, Rev. William J. Schifferl, guest speaker, slides and talk on Lourdes; Feb. 20-22 annual weekend retreat at Canade Convent, Rev. John Havas, S.J., retreat master.

March 1, annual Communion breakfast, Mrs. H. Lou Gibson, guest speaker; March 17, Men's Club-Rosary Guild St. Patrick's Day Dance, Mrs. Manning Orchestra; March 30, annual mother-daughter party, special entertainment; April 13, Sister M. Paulette, S.S.J., guest speaker, Child Psychology Specialist, and May 18, annual dinner, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Maynard A. Connel, guest speaker. Meetings begin with Benediction at 7:45 p.m.

Diocesan Sports

By FRANK KELLY

Three of our Diocesan high school teams went out on the gridiron for the first time this season last weekend and two came up with impressive victories.

In Rochester, McQuaid Jesuit High School soundly trounced Webster High's gridsters by a score of 38-0.

TOUCHDOWNS were scored by five men, with halfback Mike Kanealy scoring twice, Jack Walsh, senior quarterback, added two extra points to his touchdown run. The other scores were made by Paul Kenesora, Dennis Coyne and John DeBeer.

Coach Joe Mancarella was pleased with the output of the entire team, but he gave special mention to the defense for playing an outstanding game.

This Saturday the team travels to Canisteo to play Canisteo Central.

BOB MAHER, new coach at DeSales High School, Geneva, got off to winning ways in his team's first game of the season last weekend, when DeSales shut out the Lyons Central, 25-0.

Senior Tom Marino was the standout for the team, scoring an 87-yard run. He totalled 134 all four touchdowns, including yards during the game.

Defensive standout was senior guard "Curly" Maio, who seemed to be in the Lyons backfield as much as the Lyons backs. The Saints will tackle Waterloo this Saturday at Waterloo.

A FIGHTING Mt. Carmel High School team went down to defeat by the narrow margin of 10-12 Friday night at Auburn East to the Waterloo high team last night at Waterloo.

The game, played in a rain-soaked field, saw Mt. Carmel score touchdowns by Joe Tringali and Bill Fitzpatrick in the first and last quarters, but a poor defense, especially in the forward wall, led to the team's downfall.

The Carmel team plays at home this Saturday at 2 p.m., facing Corning Northside at the Auburn Stadium field.

THE "LITTLE IRISH" of Aquinas Institute begins its season at Memorial Stadium tonight when it faces Waterloo, a team it defeated last year by the score of 18-14.

Coach Joe Repko hopes for a better season than last when the team racked up a 35 record, but won its last two games and three of its last five games it played.

Fielding a team since 1931, the "Little Irish" have had a losing team for the last two years, but have an overall mark of 170 victories, 52 defeats and 11 ties since they started.

McQUAID HIGH School made its debut on the soccer field on Sept. 17 and went down to defeat to Penfield by the score of 1 to 0, when Chuck Rohlfuss scored on a penalty kick in the third period.

The team made up for this defeat, however, when goals by Walter Gage and Richard Ide proved to be the only scores in the game as McQuaid defeated Lima 4-0 this past Monday.

THE ROCHESTER Harps play host to the Cleveland Huzzling team in the last game of the season this Sunday, Sept. 28 at 3 p.m., at Genesee Valley Field.

The winner of the game will become champions for this year of the junior league and will receive a set of medals.

Bishop Casey Officiates At Grave Blessing

A crowd of about 200 persons braved the inclement weather last Sunday to attend the annual blessing of graves at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Auxiliary Bishop Casey officiated at the rite, assisted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wilfred T. Craugh, rector of St. Bernard's Seminary and two deacons from the seminary, Rev. Mr. Walter Denora and Rev. Mr. Paul McCabe.

FORMING an honor guard for the blessing rite were members of the Knights of St. John.

In his talk in the small chapel following the rite, Bishop Casey said, "The dominant note of this annual ceremony is not sadness but rather peace and consolation. This is due to our faith."

"Through our tears, we have the firm hope that one day we shall see again the one who is now separated from us for awhile."

The ceremony is "no sentimental pilgrimage," he said, but is, in part, "to refresh our devotion to the souls of purgatory."

After sprinkling holy water outside the chapel, the Bishop, accompanied by members of St. Bernard's Seminary Choir walked across Lake Ave. to bless the graves in the western portion of the cemetery.

First Saturday Group Lists Father Lintz

Rev. Edward J. Lintz, Ph.D., pastor of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Brockport, will be the guest speaker for the First Saturday Luncheon Saturday, Oct. 4, at the Powers Hotel Ballroom at 12:15 p.m. Father Lintz has chosen for his talk, "The Shrine of Our Lady of Walsingham." He will be presented by Rev. Albert J. Shamon, moderator of the First Saturday group.

The Rosary Society of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary parish in Brockport will be hostess for the October luncheon with Mrs. John Corbett presiding as toastmistress. Mrs. Charles Zimmer, chairman of reservations for Brockport, and the flower arrangement is assisted by the Mesdames Thomas Fall, Henry Johantgen, Arthur Allen, Warren Lynch and John Chechak.

THE LUNCHEON is sponsored by the Monroe County Council of Catholic Women, Mrs. Lawrence Wels, president. Also present at the speakers table for these occasions are Rev. E. Leo McManus, moderator of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, Mrs. Elmer Lortz, chairman of the spiritual development committee and Mrs. James Hilbert, co-chairman of spiritual development. All Catholic women in the city are urged to attend this public devotion in honor of the Blessed Mother.

Anyone from the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish who has not been contacted should be received from Mrs. James Hilbert, 145 Normandy Ave., not later than Wednesday, Oct. 1.

The luncheon closes with a blessing by all the priests present.

A dinner was given by their children and grandchildren will honor the couple after the Mass at Springbrook Inn, Caledonia. A reception will be held at the home from 2-4-5 p.m. where friends and relatives will be received by the jubilarians.

Mr. and Mrs. Skelly were married Sept. 24, 1908 in St. Columba Church, Caledonia. Mrs. Skelly was the former Ellen Morrissey of Caledonia.

The couple has three sons, Edward and Joseph Jr. of Rochester. Eugene of Williamsville; three daughters, Mrs. Harold (Margaret) Griffin, Caledonia; Mrs. James (Helen) Doyle and Mrs. William (Rita) Caulfield of Rochester and 15 grandchildren.

Mr. Skelly retired five years ago after 53 years service as an engineer with Rochester Division of the Erie Railroad Co.

George Siegrist Funeral Today

Funeral services for George H. Siegrist, widely known in Catholic lay circles, will be conducted in St. Augustine Church, (today) Friday, Sept. 26 at 10 a.m.

Mr. Siegrist of 149 Warwick Ave., a Taylor Instrument Co. employe for nearly 40 years and active in Catholic lay groups, died Sept. 23, 1958 in Genesee Hospital at the age of 65.

He was a member and past president of the Nocturnal Adoration Society of Rochester and active in the lay retreat movement from the days of the retreats at St. Bernard's Seminary down to the present at Notre Dame Retreat House.

He was secretary of the Third Order of St. Francis with headquarters at St. Patrick Church, Rochester.

The Carmelite Sisters, this week, recalled how Mr. Siegrist appeared at the old Monastery on Saratoga Ave. the day they arrived in June, 1930, and from that time until he was unable to do so, had aided them on the property by cutting the lawn and doing other work voluntarily.

Mr. Siegrist was supervisor of the ledger department of Taylor's until last April when taken ill. Born and educated in Lyons, he moved to Rochester in 1917. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. William K. Gordiner; his nephew, the Rev. William J. Gordiner, assistant pastor of St. Margaret Mary Church; two nieces, Catherine and Virginia Gordiner.

Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Funeral arrangements are being handled by D. W. Mansell Funeral Home.
