Mrs. Ruth DeVane, president, opened the program and presided at the meeting following the dinner. Rev. Raymond F. Nolan, pastor of St. Stephen's Church, was a guest of the auxiliary and spoke briefly.

A feature of the entertainment program were feats of magic by the Re-Ellas who completed card tricks, caused articles to disappear, and other feats of leger demain.

Mrs. Betty LaRocca was chairman. The ticket committee included Mary Pieleoni, Florence Tracy and Catherine Jones.

The auxiliary is planning a spaghetti supper to be held Nov. 1 in the K. of C. Home. Next meeting is scheduled for Oct. 20.

ROCHESTER

'Negroes Want Stigma Removed,' Priest Says

A Rochester priest, the Rev. Joseph G. LeFrois, S.S.J., cites the integration situation in his part of the South, Reserve, La., in a letter to his brother, Rev. Vincent LeFrois, assistant pastor of St. Salome Church, this week.

A disastrous fire destroyed part of Father Joseph LeFrois' school and the convent in his colored parish of Our Lady of Grace Church, Reserve, in February, 1937. His brother here is trying to help him financially and will inaugurate a series of parties next Tuesday at St. Salome Hall.

"THE MATTER of integration, proposes no immediate problem here," Father Joseph LeFrois said, "and the work goes on as usual. Of course, the people are deeply concerned with the matter, and follow closely every development in the struggle."

"The problem is certainly a complex one; but having worked and lived with the Negro people for a dozen years, I can understand to some extent their side of it. I would say that for them it is basically a matter of human dignity."

"Segregation stigmatizes the Negro as inferior; it is an insult to his human dignity; in effect, it says to the Negro: you are below the white man, low-class, and must be put in a special place so that you will not contaminate the white."

"COULD ANY race be content with such a stigma? I do not think so. What the Negroes really want is the removal of this stigma—the removal of the public laws that are an open insult to them as human beings, as Americans, as children of God made to His image and likeness. He wants to live as a man among men, go into a restaurant to eat and not be fed through a side window, etc.

"The change is bound to come, although it may take some time yet. A loud-mouthed minority of ignorant whites are stirring up trouble. Some politicians are making capital of the issue. A few white people have the courage to come out publicly for what they know is right. And the ordinary people, like in most other things, sit by, mind their own little world and do nothing one way or the other."
