Rosary Women To Hear Dr. O'Brien

By HELEN A. BRONAN

Owego — "Catholic Action" will be the subject of a talk by Dr. John O'Brien, Vestal, at the Communion breakfast of the Rosary and Altar Society to be served on Sunday, Oct. 5.

Dr. O'Brien, who was formerly associated with Harper College, Endicott, as a professor in business administration, is now associated with I.B.M. He is a brother of Rev. William J. O'Brien, pastor of St. Patrick's.

The breakfast, which will be prepared and served by members of the Holy Name Society, will follow the 8:30 a.m. Mass. Mrs. Robert Chernak, is chairman of the committee completing the arrangements. Mrs. Homer B. Rutherford is president of the society and Mrs. Fred B. Rutley is vice-president and program chairman.

Nuns Bake Sale

Owego — The Sisters of Mercy teachers in St. Patrick's School are planning a bake sale in the church hall following all the Masses on Sunday, Oct. 12. Mothers of the students of the school will assist the nuns in the sale. Aside from various articles of food which will be offered, there will also be religious articles, Christmas cards and Christmas wrappings.

Pupils Honored

Owego — Three former pupils of St. Patrick's School have been honored by their classmates in the Senior Class of the Owego Free Academy. Lynne Miller has been elected as vice-president of

Deanery Honors Father Schwab

Monthly meeting of the Chemung-Schuylar Deanery Council, D.C.C.W., was held last Monday in Dinn Memorial and was followed by a reception for Very Rev. Leo G. Schwab, V.F., pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes church and newly named dean.

Mrs. Walter C. Ervin, Sr. and Marion McInerney were co-chairmen of the social and were assisted by Mesdames Paul Stanton, John March, Joseph Caputo, James Brown, Cecil Richmond, Charles Emery, Joseph Lemaik, Bertha Spallone, Joseph Barneck, William Fern and G. G. Stelner.

Mrs. Daniel F. Kennedy was in charge of the musical program and was assisted by Mrs. Joseph P. O'Neill, Rev. Bartholomew J. O'Brien, assistant pastor of St. Peter and Paul's church, address of the meeting.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Freeman of Bound Brook, N.J., and Joseph McLaughlin of Albion, Mich. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy of Cottage Avenue, Hornell.

The double ring ceremony was performed and Nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. Joseph P. Hafley, pastor. Traditional wedding music was played on the organ by William Loree.

Carol McLaughlin of Bound Brook, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Teresa Fiasina of Hornell and another sister of the bride, Marian McLaughlin, also of Bound Brook.

Waverly Bank Now Merged With Marine Midland

Merger of The Citizens National Bank of Waverly, into the Marine Midland Trust Company of Southern New York, became effective Monday, Sept. 23, according to Charles A. Winding, chairman of the board.

The former Citizens National Bank will be known as the Waverly Office of Marine Midland Trust Company of Southern New York.

ROLAND P. HOLMES, its president, was named vice president and trust officer of the combined institution and will continue in charge of the Waverly Office. Winding said there will be no changes in personnel and that depositors of the bank may continue to use their present supply of forms, passbooks and checkbooks. He also stated the merger will provide greater banking services to both individuals and corporate customers of the Waverly area through enlarged lending power and facilities.

Joseph Z. Haven, formerly cashier, is named assistant treasurer of the combined institution; Sanford J. Bruce, who was assistant cashier, is now assistant secretary; Richard D. Wells, former assistant cashier and assistant trust officer, is now assistant trust officer.

In addition to the bank's board of directors on which business men representing the entire

Work Starts On School Renovation

Corning — Preliminary work including the removal of plaster and the breaking of walls is under way at St. Mary's School, where the north building will be remodeled.

The general contractor, W. F. Ganger & Sons of Elmira, started work last week.

Remodeling of the north building is expected to be completed by Feb. 1. Pupils from the oldest building will then take temporary quarters in the remodeled north building, and the former will be used for make room for a new structure. No contract has been let as yet for the latter project.

Rosary Society To Receive Communion

Members of Our Lady of Lourdes Rosary Altar Society, Elmira will receive Holy Communion at the 8:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday.

UNITED COMMUNITY CHEST-RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

October 2nd thru October 20th

YOUR FAIR SHARE

You, like every other good citizen, want to do your FAIR SHARE to help build a stronger, finer community for yourself and your family.

But what is your FAIR SHARE?

Here is a widely accepted yardstick for giving that has been used successfully in many communities:

- 1/2% of income up to $5,000
- 1% of income $5,000 to $10,000
- 1 1/2% of income $10,000 to $20,000
- 2% of income over $20,000

CAMPAIGN GOAL $462,689

Today all of us in Chemung County are engaged in making plans for this campaign... with no thought of reward other than the satisfaction of doing a good job.

Some citizens have already been at work for months making plans for this campaign... with no thought of reward other than the satisfaction of doing a good job.

ALL OF US have the privilege and the obligation to contribute as much as we can afford toward the success of the 1958 UNITED CAMPAIGN in Chemung County.
