Proposed New Mid-Town Shopping Plaza

This is how the recently proposed new Midtown Plaza will look according to Victor Green, architect. The plaza, the product of the minds of Gilbert J. C. McCurdy of McCurdy's and Maurice R. Forman of B. Forman & Co., would call for a complete new look for the mid-town Rochester shopping district. The plan calls for a new building, seen in the background of the drawing, a three-level underground parking area for private cars, a new bus terminal, an enclosed walk on what is now Cortland St. that is heated during the winter and air-conditioned during the summer, the extension of Broad St. Some buildings would be torn down, but modern new ones would go up in their place.

A LAST MINUTE score presented the DeSales High School team from racking up its second straight victory as the Waterloo Indians fought back to salvage a 13-13 tie at the Waterloo field Saturday.

Once again, the combination of Tom Marino in the backfield and Curly Malo on the line carried the Saints team on their shoulders.

Marino carried the ball 23 times, gaining 129 yards from scrimmage for an average of 4.6 yards per try. He also led both teams in tackles with 10.

Malo was the bulwark of the line, making holes for the Saints backs to go through and acting like a fifth back in the Indians' backfield.

DeSales will meet Penn Yan as it comes home this Saturday, with new Coach Bob Maher hoping for his second victory of the year.

MT. CARMEL HIGH won its first game of the year last Saturday at the East High School Stadium, Auburn, by nipping a hard-fighting Corning Northside team, 14-13.

A toughened up defense plus the sparkling play of halfback Bob Tringali proved the difference as the Carmelites came from behind for this one-point squeaker. (We wonder what the Northside coach would have done if the two-point option was in effect as it is in the colleges this year.—Ed.)

Other Carmel players contributing a great deal to the team's success were Dave Hoey, Mike Lisch, Tony Martino and Bill Fitzpatrick.

Coach Don Bucci's Carmelites hope to go over the 500 mark tonight as his team meets Vestal at Vestal.

Foreign Students Visit Rochester

Two students from the American University of Lebanon, George Savergh and Jivan Tabibian visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Brown, 49 Lark St. as part of the State Department tour of 10 foreign students visiting in U.S. this century.

Also greeting the two students was the Brown's daughter, Marjorie, a member of the Meridian (round the world) pen pal club of Nazareth Academy. It was the second time in the last few months that the Browns welcomed foreign students in their home.
