Auxiliary Will Mark 60th Anniversary

Sixty years of Catholic Action and fraternalism is being observed Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 19 and 20, by ladies auxiliary No. 44, Knights of St. John of SS. Peter and Paul's Church. This auxiliary is the largest auxiliary in New York State, its membership numbering 240 members.

It was organized on July 29, 1888 by the late Mrs. Theresa Gafster and its charter granted on Aug. 19, 1898. Mrs. Ganster was its second president and served in that position until shortly before her death in 1940. She was also the organizer of the supreme ladies auxiliary.

The observance of these 60 years will open with a public Mass which will be held on Sunday, Oct. 19, at 9:45 a.m. in SS. Peter and Paul's Church with Rev. Robert J. Fox as celebrant. The anniversary dinner will be held at the Rosary Club, 207 W. 10th St., on Monday, Oct. 20, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Pauline Fox will be the speaker.

Other Livingston County priests attending were Monsignor John M. Ball, V.F. Dean of Livingston Diocese; Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell, pastor of Livingston Diocese; Rev. John F. Woldrich and Rev. Thomas G. Morris, both of Rev. John F. Woldrich's parishes.

THE AUXILIARY has five active charter members: Mesdames Anna Barlow, Mary Goetz, Mack Anna Vay, Mary Andrews and Miss Estella Matten, who will be guests of honor during the celebration.

Other guests of honor will be the Reverend Fathers Robert J. Fox, Joseph D. Donovan and Joseph T. Gaynor, supreme president Mrs. Camilla Haszlawer, Reg. Emil G. Eckers, Rochester Regiment, Knights of St. John auxiliary district president Mrs. Julia Wasmuller and deputy or Rosary Mrs. Betty Welker.

The memorial Mass for deceased members of the auxiliary will be held on Friday, Nov. 7, at 7:30 a.m. at SS. Peter and Paul's Church.
