Scouts Set Record 614 On Cutler Retreat

The largest retreat on record for scouts and scouters of Catholic faith was conducted at Camp Cutler on Sept. 26 to 28, according to a report by James Nihill, chairman of the retreat.

Despite unfavorable weather conditions, 614 scouts and their leaders camped at Cutler where Rev. Paul Dugan, S.J., of McQuaid Jesuit High School faculty served as retreat master. He was assisted by Fathers Bernard Dolan, David Flisk, Elmer Schmidt, Eugene McFarland, Andrew Tuschel.

The troops registered Friday night and Saturday and broke camp Sunday morning after a full retreat schedule of confession, Mass conferences and other camp activities.

Each fall the Catholic lay committee on scouting sponsors the retreat for all Catholic boys in scouting.

This retreat was especially intended for scouts who hope to merit the Ad Altare Dei award next June, according to Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, diocesan scout chaplain and John W. Norton, deanery chairman of the Catholic lay committee.
