The annual convention of the New York State Association of Architects, Inc. is to be held on Thursday through Saturday, Oct. 16-17-18 at the Powers Hotel in Rochester.

80 Women Installed In Homeoye Falls Unit

Homeoye Falls—Eighty women of the Cross Parish Homeoye Falls were formally installed as members of the new Rosary and Altar Society, Sunday last at 4 p.m.

Monsignor John M. Duffy, pastor of St. Augustine Church, presided at the installation. The group will meet Thursday, Oct. 9 at 8 p.m. in the church. After recitation of the Rosary a business meeting will be held in the hall. A "Get Acquainted Party" is arranged by Mrs. Charles Messing and Mrs. Joseph Proyer, program chairmen.

Officers are: Mrs. Walter Bell, president; Mrs. Robert Cook, vice president; Mrs. Mildred Diegari, secretary; and Mrs. Angelo Piro, treasurer.

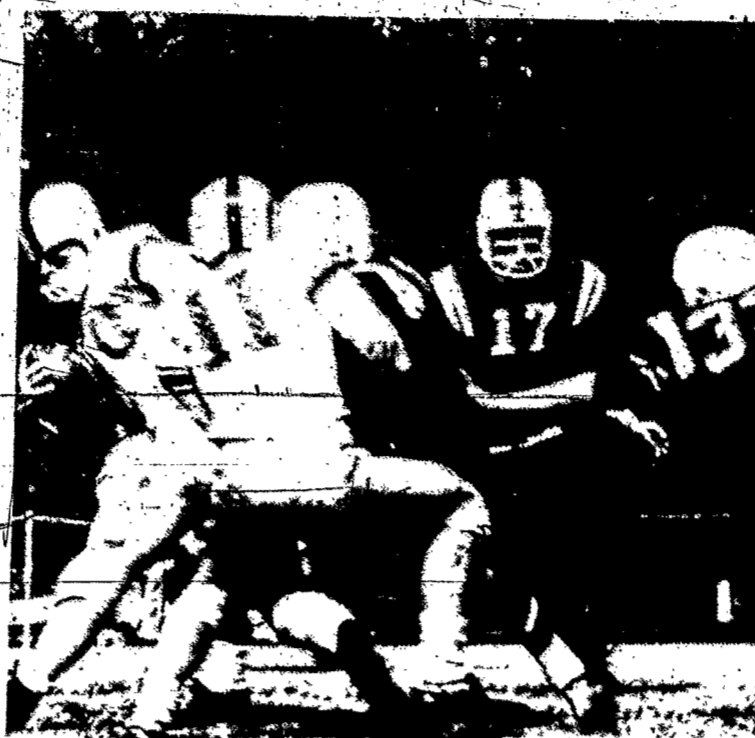

Rev. Howard W. Glick, pastor, is spiritual adviser.

FULLBACK MIKE Wolford goes around end for a short gain against Brockport High in last Saturday's game won by the Knights, 25-7. The Knights meet Mt. Carmel High of Auburn in this Saturday's game at the Elmwood Ave. field.

Two of the Diocesan high schools get together this week in what should be an interesting match at McQuaid High's football field on Elmwood Ave.

The McQuaid Knights go into the game with an undefeated record, winning their last outing over Brockport High 25-7 last Saturday to make it three in a row.

THEIR OPPONENTS, Mt. Carmel High's Carmelites, have a 1-2 record that is deceiving which included a 41-6 defeat last Friday by Vestal High.

However, in this game Vestal scored three of its touchdowns on Mt. Carmel mistakes, which included a bad pass from center on fourth down, an interception and a fumble.

Mt. Carmel was also thwarted time after time after penetrating deep into Vestal territory by its own fumbles and pass interceptions. The Carmelites score came with four minutes to play in the game on a 54-yard pass play from Quarterback Tony Martino

Aquinas Completes Renovation Program

Extensive repairs and renovations have been completed at Aquinas Institute climaxed a year long program to restore the original beauty of the Dewey Avenue building.

Marble and mosaic work surrounding the statue of St. Thomas Aquinas at the main entrance received special treatment by the Artisan company, church decorators. Corridors and stairwells have all been painted in modern harmonizing colors.

MURALS depicting student life and painted by Fred Loewen-guth, a local artist, have been added to the auditorium. Soft colors on the walls enhance the beauty of the life-size paintings of present and former Bishops of Rochester.

A new hard-maple "floating floor", considered to be the most advanced design in gym flooring, has been laid in the gymnasium. The floor, placed on rubber rests free from the walls, thus allowing maximum spring. Permanent chairs have been replaced by hard wood bleachers. The entire ceiling has been acoustically

THE LITTLE IRISH of Aquinas Institute won their second, straight game last Friday when they beat Erie Academy, 12-0, but the win may have proved costly.

Fullback Don Crowley, who along with Bobby Miquet had sparked their offense in the first two games, came up with a broken leg. His place will be taken over by Tom Clehon, who was a member of last year's undefeated JayVee squad.

The game this Sunday at Memorial Stadium will be the Little Irish's toughest of the year. They will meet the undefeated North Catholic Trojans from Pittsburgh.

The Trojans return with 17 lettermen from last year's team which upended Aquinas, 39-12. If the Little Irish go through
