Society Honors Foreign Students

Ithaca — Foreign students of Cornell University, guests of the Rosary and Altar Society of Immaculate Conception Church, thanked the Society for hospitality shown them and spoke of the warm welcome received from Americans in general at a pot luck supper Monday.

About 70 persons attended the supper in the parish hall.

HONORED WERE Rev Antonio Sagrista, S.J. who teaches at the Catholic University of Tokyo, Japan; George Mathew of India; Imre Tomas of Hungary; Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Gilbert of Great Britain and Venezuela respectively and Nichole Begin of Quebec, Canada.

Mrs. Frank Vogt mother of Rev. Otto J. Vogt, moderator was also an honored guest.

Mathew told about India being 4 per cent Christian of which 3 per cent were Catholic. He also mentioned the various Catholic rites existing in India and of the Malabar Syrian Catholic Rite may receive Holy Communion in a standing position instead of a kneeling position at an altar railing.

THOMAS SPOKE of the Hungarian uprising against communism which took place two years ago Oct. 23. He expressed thanks for the asylum granted to Cardinal Mindszenty by the Americans.

Gilbert formerly of Great Britain and now of Venezuela told of incidents that may have been the cause of the uprisings against Vice President Nixon and of the public apologies that had been made by the Venezuelean Government in the press, over radio and tlevision.

FATHER SAGRISTA told of his work among the Japanese people, and of the accomplishments that had resulted through prayers offered up for his work by friends and others thousands of miles away. He illustrated three case histories proving this point. Father Sagrista also said prayers of The Rosary in Japanese.

Father Vogt was feted because it was his birthday and the society members presented him with a gift.

The next meeting of The Rosary and Altar Society will be held on Nov. 24.

Committee members don "Gay Nineties" hats as they look over bazaar gifts contributed by members of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Corning, as the benefit bazaar was held in the parish school hall recently. Mildred Blakeslee Funeral Held Painted Post — Funeral services were held Oct. 11, for Mrs. Mildred Blakeslee of 116 Platt St, with prayer at the A. W. Beilby and Son Funeral Home followed by Mass in the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church with the pastor, the Rev. Harold F. Rogers, as celebrant. Mrs. Blakeslee died Oct 8, 1958 at Arnot-Ogden Hospital in Elmira where she had been a patient for a week but in ill health for the past year.

Father Rogers also officiated at the committal services in St. Mary's Cemetery, Corning.

She is survived by her husband, Edward, who is a patrolman in the Painted Post Police Department; three children at home Michael, Dawn Marie and Edward, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hornby of Brainard; three sisters, Mrs. Harold Freeman and Mrs. George De Busk of Brainard and Mrs. Earl Lind of Livingston, Minn. and three brothers, Gene Hornby of Brainard, Francis of Minneapolis, Minn. and James M Hornby of Seattle, Wash.

Woman Feted By Business Group

Corning — Mrs. Catherine Guntrup, a graduate of St. Vincent de Paul's parochial school and now a member of the parish church, was paid tribute as one of the city's best known business women a week ago.

The occasion was the Corning Business and Professional Women's Club observance of National Business and Professional Women's Week.

Mrs. Guntrup, owner and manager of the Credit Bureau of Corning, has been a member of Women's Club since 1939, having served as chairman on various committees; as first and second vice president and president from 1950-52. She has been a member of the board of directors of BPW for 13 years.

She became associated with the Credit Bureau in 1928 working part time, and in 1940 purchased the business from Fordyce Foster. At that time she took the examination required by the Associated Credit Bureaus of America, to operate the business as manager.

Mrs. Guntrup attended St. Vincent de Paul's School and was graduated from Northside High School following which she attended Rochester Business Institute. She is a communicant of St. Vincent's Church and a charter member of the Sodality of St. Vincent's. She is also a charter member of Hospital Chapter S, comprised of business women, which was organized during her terms of office as president of BPW.

Hibernians Division Gets Six Applications

Six applications for membership were read at the monthly meeting of the Msgr. John J. Lee Division, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Oct. 10 at Columbus Center.

Division president Donald J. Seaman presided at the meeting and recording secretary Raymond B. Hourihan read the applications. About 30 members attended the session.

Seaman announced that Sunday, Nov. 23 had been selected as a tentative date for the bestowing of the first degree of the order.

Additional applications will be read at the next monthly meeting, Friday, Nov. 14. At this meeting, all prospective AOH candidates will be voted on by the membership.

Seaman named William C. Hulbert and Bart J. Maloney as co-chairmen of the annual Christmas party.

The party, to be scheduled for mid-December, climaxes Hibernian activities for the year.

Conclusion of the year long euchre tournament and a song-fest concluded the October meeting.

THE FUTURE NURSES Club met last week, under the presidency of Margaret Laux, to decide the year's projects. Chief of these is the voluntary service they will render St. Joseph's Hospital as ward secretaries. Future nurses will wear their self-designed blue uniforms and will receive achievement pins for hours of service. A tea was held Oct. 9 at the Dunn Memorial for prospective "secretaries."

At the next meeting the association will receive new members. The requirement is interest, substantiated by a 75% average. Other officers of the club are Marianne McCarthy, Loretta Sheehe and Carol Tota.
