Decency Pledge Forbids Attending Two Theatres

Two downtown Rochester theaters have on more than one occasion this year shown motion pictures listed by the Legion of Decency as Class C (Condemned). Both theaters this past week presented C listed films following similarly listed programs earlier this year. The theaters are the Little East Avenue, and the Capitol, Main St. West. Catholics are reminded of their Legion of Decency pledge made annually in all churches of the Diocese: "I condemn indecent and immoral motion pictures. . . As a member of the Legion of Decency, I pledge myself to remain away from them. I promise, further, to stay away from places of amusement which show them as a matter of policy."

TV, Radio Networks Have Programs On Pope's Death

Pope Pius XII was the first Pontiff of the church to make use of civilization's latest means of communications—television. This he did intensively. His voice and his figure were known well to European TV-viewers. A WARM tribute was paid to the Pope by television in the United States on the occasion of his death. Within half-an-hour after the tragic news, the three major networks in this country—the American Broadcasting Company, the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Company—staged special and carefully preplanned programs on the life of the Pontiff. Some programs were an hour long. The Pope also made immense use of the radio. The U.S. radio networks—ABC, CBS, NBC and the Mutual Broadcasting System—also had special programs dealing with the death of the Holy Father.
