

Sports Of The Diocese

By FRANK KELLY

For the second week in a row, the Carmelites of Mt. Carmel High School, Auburn, fell before the gridsters of a Rochester Catholic high school team.

This time, the Little Irish of Aquinas Institute proved to be too much for Mt. Carmel to handle, as they bowed 44-14.

THE LITTLE IRISH, rebounding from their only defeat of the season from the hands of North Catholic of Pittsburgh, led at half-time, 31 to 0.

Mt. Carmel scored its two touchdowns in the last period; one on a 45 yard pass play from Mike Rush to Bill Hoey, and the second on a 70-yard runback of a kickoff by Mike Lesch with only seconds remaining in the game.

The Little Irish were paced by Bob Lambert, who has become an excellent replacement for the injured Don Crowley at fullback, and Tom Diciccare, who scored three times on plays that covered 60, 70 and 55 yards.

Lambert scored two of his team's TD's and the others were picked up by Rod Scaleria and Dennis Fox.

FOX'S TOUCHDOWN came in the last period after Lambert set it up by running the kickoff back after Mt. Carmel's first score to the 3-yard line. This touchdown preceded the Carmelites final score.

The Little Irish face Elmira Free Academy tonight at the Elmira field. Mt. Carmel faces Chenango Valley at home tonight.

IN THE OTHER game played by a Diocesan high team last week, the Saints of Desales High, Geneva, kept up their unbeaten record by crushing Palmyra, 34-0.

Playing less than three-fourths of the game, the Saints talented duo of Tom Marino and Curley Molo once again proved too much for the opposition to hold.

Marino raked up 132 yards in 14 carries while scoring three touchdowns, raising his total to 12 scores in his team's five games to date.

Molo spearheaded the offense by making 11 tackles and consistently opening up holes in the Palmyra defense for DeSales' backs to pour through.

THAT THE SAINTS have a rockribbed defense is shown in the game statistics which reveal that Palmyra gained a mere 39 yards rushing on offense.

The Saints' other two scores were made by Tim Zaso and John O'Connor. DeSales will be home this Saturday to face its traditional rival, Geneva High, at the North Street Stadium at 2 p.m.

MCQUAID HIGH will return to the football field this Saturday after a week's respite to play Bath Central at Bath.

The Knights have racked up some very impressive totals in their four wins against Webster, Canisteo, Brockport and Mt. Carmel.

MIKE WOLFORD leads the Knights in offense with a total of 422 yards rushing. Fullback Paul Kennerson and Mike Kennaley have gained 142 yards and 345 yards, respectively, while Kennerson has an 11.8 yards gained per try average.

THE OUTSTANDING feature in McQuaid's undefeated season thus far though is the defense, according to coach Joe Mancarella.

"The senior linemen are responsible for our line defensive record," he said. "This line has been led by Dick Kremer, Bill Schoenwiltz, Dunfee, Levesque, Pendleton and Fustanio, who don't make the headlines, but deserve the real credit for our success."

Memberships Sought Boy Scouts On Camping Trip

By CWV Auxiliary

Catholic War Veterans' Auxiliary of Monroe County is conducting a membership drive during the month of October. Relatives of Catholic War Veterans are eligible. Persons interested are asked to call Mrs. E. J. Manzek, Hubbard 2-7305.

Geneva Troop 8 of the Boy Scouts of St. Stephen's parish held a Scout Camporee recently at High Top Game Park in Italy Valley near Naples.

The Scouts slept in tents Friday and Saturday nights. They cooked their own meals and cooked meals over the campfires.

The program included hiking, games and an exhibition of target shooting by Sgt. Rupert Raymer of the Geneva Police Department. A council fire was held Saturday night.

After attending the 7 a.m. Mass in Naples, the boys returned to the campsite where they cooked Sunday dinner. They broke camp and returned to Geneva about 3:30 p.m.

CYO Drive Best In History

The Catholic Youth Association has just completed the best membership drive in its history.

In the final report meeting held last week, which was addressed by Bishop Kearney, with only a few reports missing, CYO membership numbered 3,353 new members, going over its goal by 95 members.

IN HIS TALK to the workers, Bishop Kearney emphasized the community value of educational and recreational activities carried on by Catholic institutions.

"In education alone," the Bishop said, "Catholic schools of Monroe County are saving taxpayers about 17 million dollars a year."

The Bishop was introduced by Rev. Eugene H. McFarland, director of the CYO, and several groups of children from various Summer CYO playgrounds were presented to the Bishop.

THE FINAL total showed that the women's division beat the men by 711 new members to 732 new members. The women also boasted the highest division leader in Helen O'Harrigan with 193 percent to James DeMarie with 182 percent.

Leaders of the various divisions were Mrs. Lynn French, women's division; Horace P. Gioia, men's group, and Marion F. Birmingham, special group.

The special committee, which solicited firms for donor memberships, reported a total of 1,892. John A. Dale, general chairman of the campaign, who was out of town when the final report was made, wired congratulations to the workers.

HOSTMASTER for the dinner meeting was Tom Decker, news and sports commentator for Station WJET. Also present at the affair were Howard Meath, CYO program director; William T. Nolan, membership secretary; Helen Smith, Summer camp director, and Martin J. Moll, head of the CYO board.

Other final reports showed that Charles Tuziano led all ten captains with a 608 percentage; Josephine Mancuso was second with 509. Other team captains scoring high totals were Walter May with 340 percent; Mrs. Paul Miller with 291 percent; Jennie Cappiello with 278 percent; Joseph Marie with 231 percent; and William J. Meyer with 228 percent.

Prizes awarded winners as a result of the campaign included a women's suit, a man's suit, electric clocks, 12 turkeys and other merchandise.
