

Communion Breakfast Opens Youth Week

National Catholic Youth Week will open at St. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, with a Communion breakfast for the members of the parish.

The breakfast, a project of the Sodality of Our Lady, will follow the High Mass on Sunday, the Feast of Christ the King, when the high school boys and girls will receive Communion in a body.

The guest speaker will be Daniel J. Donahue, Judge of the Children's Court, who will be induced by Daniel Dray, Captain and commanding officer of the Elmira Police Cadet Corps and Sodality instructor of candidates. Edward Kasouf, prefect of the Sodality and master of ceremonies at the breakfast, said that this is the eighth annual observance of Catholic Youth Week throughout the nation. This observance is a project of the National Council of Catholic Youth.

The slogan of the observance, "Youth, Space and Sanctity," will be explained to the teenagers by Joseph Kominsky, treasurer of the Sodality.

A welcome will be extended to the youth of the parish and to their friends by the vice president of the Sodality, Nora Kent.

Betheta Kasouf is directing the breakfast.

EVERYBODY'S TALKING

the New School Savings Program

Starting last Tuesday, School Savings Deposits were accepted in the classroom from the students at the following schools: St. Mary's, St. Patrick's, Our Lady of Lourdes, St. Casimir's, St. Cecilia's, St. Anthony's and St. Peter and Paul's.

These deposits may be made in any amount in multiples of five-cents. A student may open an account for as little as five cents by signing a signature card and having his parents also sign the card.

A School Savings passbook will be issued the student for his use with future deposits by the Elmira Savings Bank. The book will be issued in the student's name and will be used each time a deposit is made.
