

Supper Set By Catholic Daughters

By HELEN A. BRONNAN
Owego — Raymond Stella, Sr. and James Panetti, members of St. Patrick's Parish will assist in the preparation of the supper to be sponsored by Court St. Rose of Lima, Catholic Daughters of America.

The supper, which will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8, will be served in the parish hall. Mrs. Alice Ward, grand regent of the court, has appointed Mrs. Mary Moad as chairman of the committee in charge of the dining room and Mrs. Evelyn Barrett, chairman in charge of the kitchen. Tickets are on sale this week.

AWARD WINNER
Owego — Anne Skelton, daughter of Mrs. Robert Skelton, has been awarded the good citizens award offered by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Skelton was selected for the honor by the faculty of the Owego Free Academy. She will write an essay on "Unity of Man Under Our Republic." She is a graduate of St. Patrick's Parish School and is secretary of the Senior Class of the Owego Free Academy.

THIRD GRADE PROJECT of St. Ann's School, Hornell is this Indian Village pupils planned and constructed. It is being exhibited by (from left) Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scaglione and Jack List, parents of the pupils. It was displayed at open house and tea sponsored by the Mothers Club. (The Evening Tribune Photo).

St. Ann's School Open House Held

Hornell—Academic progress for the first 10 weeks of the school year was illustrated Sunday as St. Ann's School held open house.

A total of 1,020 parents, relatives and friends toured the various rooms of the school, which is located on the corner of St. Peter's and Main streets in the pine room of the building.

THE TEA WAS in charge of Mrs. Harry Sherman, president of St. Ann's Mothers Club. Mrs. Frank Hornbeck, Mrs. J. Harold Griffin, Mrs. H. L. Solo and Mrs. Raymond Moran, past presidents, presided.

In each room of the school, pupils' work was displayed in individual folders and on blackboards and bulletin boards. Every room had its own religious shrine with emphasis on Christ the King and Our Lady of the Rosary.

EACH CLASSROOM had its own music display. Music concepts and skills, ranging from basic knowledge of the staff to complicated floral designs depicted in the works of foremost composers were imparted according to the varying abilities of the pupils.

Tea was served at a table centered with a statue of Our Lady of the Rosary surrounded by red and white daisies and carnations.

Grade hostesses were Mrs. James Rowland Sisk, George Harrison, Harry Joyce, Rudolph Cooper, Peter Anzogh, Angelo Cillito, William Gifford, Arnold Daniels, Joseph Pangel, Herbert Foley, Francis Noble, Robert Bishop, W. A. Dunn, Edward Brown, Anthony Caruso, Francis Spelley, Dominic Mardo, Joseph Schaefer, Joseph Grillo and Verdo Cardello.

Coming—Catholic Youth Sunday was observed in St. Patrick's Church morning Sunday at the 10 a.m. Mass.

Solemn High Mass was celebrated and the vestments of the parish received Holy Communion. Peter Goltzer and John Rische, of the Cornish Free Academy senior class served as altar boys for the Mass.

The purpose of Catholic Youth Week is to emphasize that all Catholics youth recognize Christ as their spiritual king and leader and live up to His teachings in their daily lives.

St. James Plans New Addition

By ELIZABETH TUCCINARDI

Waverly—Plans for a $60,000 addition to St. James School, Waverly are being made, according to the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor.

Included are plans for two more classrooms to make a total of eight, and a cafeteria.

To avoid a campaign for additional funds, parishioners of St. James are asked to continue to give approximately five per cent of their net incomes.
