Holy Family Theatre Guild Presents 'My China Doll'

Holy Family Theatre Guild will present a three-act musical comedy, a one-time Broadway success, "My China Doll," on the evenings of Nov. 19, 20 and 21 at the Holy Family Auditorium on Jay St., with a special matinee for the school children on Sunday, Nov. 16 at 2:30 p.m.

The play is being directed by Anthony Zapella, well known to the theater circle through his association with the Arena Theater.

Helen Schrami and Joseph Snyder of Holy Family Parish are musical directors for the songs and dances. Helen Sypian, also of this parish, is choreographer.

Gene Cotter, prominent in many musical productions in Music Theatre of Rochester, has the male lead, with Winifred McLaughlin Galland, playing opposite him.

SUPPORTING parts are taken by Tom O'Neil, Joe O'Connor, Jean Meekin, Grace Foster, Paul Caspar, Andrew Meekin and Pat Keene, all veterans of many musicals presented at Holy Family.

The ensemble consists of Virginia McBride, Paula Marino, Angela Fenicchia, Patricia Wawzyniak, Mary Ann Stockmeister, Michael Tette, Michael Santangelo, Ricky Russell, Mary Hemmerick, Lynn Hochreiter, Patricia Allen, Diane Henchen, Gerard Tette, John Flesch, Ronald Lackey, Paul Galland, Harold Norbut and Richard Hommel.

IN THE DANCING numbers can be found Dorothy Ann Kudiak, Gloria Lopez, Barbara Hoffman, Karen Metzger, Mary Ann Tette, Frances Schwalbach and Paula Nitzman.

The leads and supporting leads are acted by the adults and in the ensemble and the dancing parts, six high schools are represented, namely, Aquinas, McQuaid, Nazareth, Mercy, St. Agnes and Edison Tech.

Authentic costumes are being especially prepared for the cast by an out-of-town concern and the settings of celebration for New Year's Eve are under the competent supervision of John Volkmar and Joseph Federico.

"The Heiress" — Cast for the Nazareth College play scheduled for Nov. 14 and 15 includes from left, rear, Richard Edwards and Kathy La Delfa, front, Kay Barrett, Patricia McNamara and Rosemary Christiano.

'The Heiress'

Roles Cast For College Play

Leading roles in the Nazareth College Fall Play "The Heiress," to be presented at the college auditorium, Friday and Saturday evenings, November 14 and 15, will be played by Patricia Ripple who received wide acclaim for her performance in "The Boy Friend" last spring, and Joseph Baranowski, the lead in Catholic Theatre's recent production, "Beautiful People."

"The Heiress," a Broadway play which later became a hit movie, was adapted from the Henry James novel, "Washington Square." Scene of the play is New York in the 1850's.

THE PLOT centers around the story of a shy, plain young girl, Catherine Sloper, who falls desperately in love with a delightful young fortune hunter. Catherine's lack of worldliness prevents her from realizing that the young man proposing to her is now drawn to her entirely by her charm.

Catherine's father, a successful doctor, sees through the fortune-hunter and forbids the marriage. Subsequent developments provide a fine dramatic setting for the changes which take place in Catherine as a result of her experiences and which make The Heiress an interesting and absorbing psychological study.

OTHER ROLES will be taken by Stephanie Sullivan, undergraduate president, whose work in Nazareth College performances for the past three years has been outstanding; Patricia McNamara, who has played leading roles in St. John Fisher and Nazareth College plays; Kay Barrett, who also starred in The Boy Friend; Rosemary Christiano and Kathy LaDelfa, newcomers to the Nazareth stage. Kevin Considine of St. John Fisher College and Richard Edwards, also with Catholic Theatre, will be seen in the other male roles.

Symphony Resumes Radio Broadcasts

For the 16th consecutive season McCurdy & Company will sponsor the McCurdy Little Symphony live radio broadcast over station WHAM, 1180 on the dial, every Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. starting Nov. 11.

This program, originating from Studio H on Swan St., is the only one of its kind in Upstate New York. Dr. Paul White will again conduct the 45 member orchestra, comprised of members of the Rochester Civic Orchestra.

Dr. Howard Hanson, director of the Eastman School, will present McCurdy scholarships to outstanding Eastman students during the first program. The company established these scholarships in 1944 to aid talented, young musicians at the collegiate and preparatory levels.

There will be three selections featured on the first program. These include Sarabanda, Giga and Badinerie for string orchestra by Corelli, who was born in 1653; the Aria Mentre ti Lascio by Mozart, to be sung by baritone Ed White, McCurdy scholarship winner of last season; West Side Story by Bernstein.

Multiple Sclerosis Record Hop Set

A teenage record hop will be held Friday evening, Nov. 14, at Corpus Christi Parish Hall. The dance, which is being sponsored by the "Friends of the Multiple Schlerosis Chapter," will feature Ed Ferland as master of ceremonies.

Entertainment will be furnished by Pat Torpy, "Vincent and His Accordian" and Dennis the Magician. Admission will be 65 cents, with dancing from 8 til 11 p.m.

Refreshments will be available. All proceeds from the dance will go toward the purchase of wheel chairs for multiple sclerosis patients.
