Marilyn Ripley as St. John the Baptist; Anne Sutton as St. Francis of Assisi; Janice Simon and Margaret Wineski as Saints of the future; Marie Barnoski as the Blessed Mother; and Elizabeth Drake as St. Patrick.

Sodalists Hold Costume Party

The annual Halloween party sponsored by the Junior Sodality of St. Casimir School, Elmira, was held in the auditorium last Friday.

The Sodalists were dressed in appropriate costumes of Saints in keeping with the true meaning of Halloween, the eve of All Saints Day.

Awards were presented Elizabeth Drake for the most original, dressed as St. Patrick; Patricia Patton for the best resemblance to her Saint, St. Lucy; Janice Simon as a Nun, depicting the most authentic representation as a Saint of the future.

Games and refreshments were served. The program was under the direction of Sister Clotilde.

Notre Dame High Notes

By Joan Daly,
and Jeanne Lawton

Notre Dame was honored by a visit from Bishop Kearney on Wednesday. The Lourdes Centennial year was the occasion for this special visit during which the Bishop celebrated Holy Mass. In keeping with the late Pope Pius XII's desire for congregation participation, a "Missa Re-creata" was led by Richard Boroff. The student body sang, "Thou Art the Star of Morning," "Gloria Patri" and the Lourdes Hymn with appropriate words written by the Bishop.

Business education day on Thursday brought 18 business officials to Notre Dame to visit classes and see how schools are run nowadays. Last year teachers visited business firms.

The Parents' Association met last Monday to discuss plans for their card party to be held Monday, Nov. 10. After the meeting, parents were entertained by the choral classes under the direction of Sister Mary Edwina. Soloists Jackie Hall, accompanied by the chorus, sang "I Believe." Other musical numbers included "Dream" and "The Year of Jubilo." Karen Fuller and Suzanne Baranewicz accompanied the selections.

Junior Five under the auspices of the Class of '50 will take place tonight at 8:30. Co-chairmen Francis Silva and Carol Tola announce a Rock 'n' Roll Contest at intermission. Those who have signed up in their homerooms will contribute their talent to the fun of the evening.

Mission Day, Nov. 4, is on the horizon. Tuesday the gigantic guessing game got underway: "How many people have been treated at the Maryknoll Clinic in Pusan, Korea, from April 1, 1951 to Nov. 1, 1958?" Tom Petrick and Tom Burgasser are in charge of this activity. All donations for Mission Day will be gratefully received.

Nurses Hold Halloween Fete

Student nurses of St. Joseph's Hospital held their annual Halloween party on Oct. 29 in the auditorium of the nurses' residence.

The Nazareth College Sophomore Nurses presented a one-act play and St. Joseph's student groups with presentations ranging in variety from the dancing popular in the various eras of the nursing school to an idea of what future space nurses might be like.
