Third Order To Meet

CARMELITES
 Carmelite Third Order will meet Sunday, Nov. 8, 3 p. m. at St. Mary's of Victory Church, 10 Pleasant St.

Father Edward Collins, spiritual director, will receive the vows of novices of those to be professed. These members who have served their God's novitiate will upon completion of the profession ceremony, become brothers and sisters of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Mount Carmel for life.

An invitation is extended to all those interested, formerly or not, who would like to attend.

FRANCISANS
 The Third Order of St. Francis of St. Patrick's Parishes has elected new members to the following board of directors:

President, Leo F. Zeller; vice president, Emma Duberlin; secretary, Mrs. Leo Zeller; treasurer, Dr. Henry F. Biland; master of novices, Max O'Leary; mistress of novices, Patrick O'Leary; financial secretary, Margaret Kuhn; spiritual secretary.

INSTALLATION OF THESE officers will take place at the regular monthly meeting on Nov. 27, 8 p. m., St. Patrick's Church, N. 12th and Grand Brown.

Two Confirmed
 By New Pope

Corning — The celebration of Pope John XXIII in Rome this week had a special significance for two Corningites.

While living in Istanbul, Turkey in 1937, Mrs. Ann Kosty and Mrs. Mary Fratracangelo, sisters who now reside in Corning, were confirmed by the then Archbishop Roncalli.

"I can still remember the confirmation as a blessing of the Holy Spirit," Mrs. Kosty said. "I was the first girl ever confirmed in America in that city."

Mrs. Kosty, who is 42 years old at the time of her confirmation, now lives at 729 W. Third St. Her sister, Mrs. Fratracangelo, who is 40 years old, lives at 22 W. Second St. in Corning.

The two women were living in Turkey with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franz Welzel, and their two sisters, Theresa and Margaret. Welzel was employed as a glass blower in a Turkish glass factory.

While living in Turkey, Ann and Mary attended St. George's school in Istanbul, and they were confirmed by the now Pontiff in a large French cathedral in that city.

"REMINISCING about that day Mrs. Welzel, who together with her husband brought their children to this country in 1938 and settled in Corning, said that it was a hot, summer morning when the girls were confirmed. In fact, it was too hot for the youngest daughter, Margaret, to be brought to the cathedral."

Mary and Ann were part of the first group from their family to take a part in the ceremony. Their older sister, Theresa, acted as a sponsor for a classmate of Ann's.

Theresa, who lives in Paris now, is personal maid to Mrs. Amory H. Hamilton, Corning, wife of the U.S. ambassador to France.

HOME ON A month's vacation, she recalled that all of the family went up to the common room after the ceremony to kiss the ring of the new Pope John.

Before coming to Turkey, Welzel was employed as a glass blower in Bulgaria after World War I.

Capri Club Slates
 Open House Party

The annual open house party of the Capri Club will be held at the Columbus Club Center ballroom on Sunday, Nov. 8th, from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m. Music for dancing will be furnished by Mike Russo and his orchestra. Admission and refreshments will be free.

All single Catholics over 25 years of age are eligible to become members of the club and are cordially invited to attend this party and become acquainted with its officers and members.

Cochairmen are Jean Mitchell and Ed Kelly.

Scharf Wins
 Oratory Plaque

At the Tri-State Tournament for debating and oratory held Oct. 21 and 22 at Jamestown, N. Y., McGill senior Timothy Scharf won a second place plaque for original oratory with a speech on Theodore Roosevelt.

Other McGill debaters and orators who participated were seniors John LeVay, Eugene Ulterio, Douglas Marde, Anthony Zito, David Northrup and Stuart Meisenzahl.
