DeSales Saints Boast Best Mark

By FRANK KELLY

The Saints of DeSales High School, Geneva, wrapped up its best season in its history by squeaking past the Clyde High School Bulldogs for a 14-13 victory.

Marino set up both DeSales touchdowns while carrying for 88 yards in 22 carries. The touchdowns were scored by the fullback Johnny O'Connor and halfback Ron Mattis, who also added the vital points after touchdown on runs.

The victory gave DeSales a season's record of six wins, one loss to Wyndersee and a tie with Waterloo. This win was also significant as it was the Saints' first win over Clyde in 12 years.

Coach Bob Mathews' charges wrapped up second place in the Wayne-Finger Lakes Conference by their win. Marino also set a new school record for the most yards gained in one season. He gained 1,020 yards in 110 carries for an average of 7.2 yards per carry.

DeSALES SCORED the first time they handled the ball in the second quarter of the game and closed the second quarter of the second half.

Clyde fullback Tom Mercurio scored both touchdowns. His first was a 3-yard run and a one-yard run. Mercurio scored the first touchdown after the first score drive. Bill Kelly try after the second was stopped by the entire Saints line.

The second Clyde score came with only a minute and a half to play in the game. It was set up when Clyde recovered Roy Fischette blocked O'Connor's punt.

AN ATTEMPTED on-side kick failed for Clyde at this point, with the Saints taking over on the Clyde 40.

The game was the last for six Saints. They are Marino, co-captain Carley Mato who led the defense with 12 tackles, O'Connor, Dick Cl[illegible], Mike Powers, Bill Ro[illegible] who sat out the last game after receiving an injury in the Myndersee game.

THE LITTLE Irish of Aquinas fought valiantly but losing game to Bishop Fallon of Buffalo 13-0 before a crowd of 5,000 at Memorial Stadium.

A fumble set up the deciding score in the last period as the Little Irish gave Fallon the ball on the Aquinas 15. On the second play Fallon quarterback Chuck Tedesco threw to Jerry Jakubcsak for the first Buffalo score.

HALFBACK Tom DeSarro [illegible] the second Aquinas TD with [illegible] Fallon's Quarterback Bob Mingle [illegible] a two-yard touchdown.

With only a few minutes left in the half, Fallon tied it on a pass from Tedesco to Joe Kus[illegible] and Col. Abrams scored the [illegible] after.

With 50 seconds remaining in the second period Aquinas was [illegible] a pass interception [illegible] the Fallon 2[illegible].

The Little Irish in running their season's mark to 5-2 [illegible] to the Fallon one in the third period only to be stopped on [illegible] plays.

AQUINAS WINDS up their season Sunday when they tackle Bishop Turner of Buffalo at Memorial Stadium at 2 p.m.

Geneva Knights Receive Degree

Geneva—150 new members were admitted into the Geneva Council, Knights of Columbus in third degree exemplification ceremonies held Sunday in the DeSales High School gymnasium.

Michael J. Simone, grand knight of the council, said that it was the largest class exemplified in several years. The ceremonies were conducted under the direction of district deputy Michael J. McDonald of the 77th District.

Assisting the district deputy besides the grand knight and his staff were district deputies from other districts including Rochester, Auburn, Elmira, Utica and Syracuse. More than 400 Knights attended the ceremonies.

In connection with the initiation exercises a Memorial Mass for the late members was celebrated by Rev. Raymond P. Nolan in St. Stephen's Church.

While the ceremonies were under direct supervision of McDonald the degree work was conducted by district deputies Joseph Foley and Joseph Wallace and their staff from Utica.

Addressing the newly initiated members, McDonald reminded them of their obligation to the church the state and the council.

He pointed out that if they would practice the great principles of charity, unity, fraternity, and patriotism on which the order was founded, "you will be the knights we expect you to be ... and you will be the good citizens we expect you to be."

The new members are from Auburn, Seneca Falls, Waterloo, Canandaigua, Geneva and Newark.

Following the ceremonies, a banquet was held at the K. of C. Home on Milton St.

Missionary Visits Alma Mater

Auburn — Rev. Albinus Lesch, C.P., a native Auburnian and a graduate of St. Mary's School, paid a visit to the school recently and answered questions on his travels and also on religious vocations. Father Lesch, who spent 11 years as a chaplain in the U.S. Armed Forces, is engaged in missionary work in the Phillipines. At the left is Sister Catherine Teresa, eighth grade teacher at St. Mary's School. (A. G. Tarby Photo).

Refresher Course For Catholics

A Catholic refresher course is being conducted every Monday at 8 p.m. at St. Philip Neri Hall, Goodman St.

All Catholics and non-Catholics are invited to these lectures so that they may put upon their religion or to become acquainted with the teachings of the Catholic Church. Father George Weitemeyer and Father Paul Cheetham are conducting the classes.

Third Order Sets Meeting

Auburn — Our Lady of Mt. Carmel chapter of the Third Order of Mt. Carmel will meet Sunday, Nov. 16 at 3 p.m. at Whitefriars Monastery, South St., Auburn.

Rev. Norbert Hansen, O. Carm., spiritual director, has extended an invitation to all those interested in the Third Order to attend this meeting as guests.

School Nurse Dies Suddenly Nov. 5

Rose M. Fritz, for many years a school health nurse for the Rochester Health Bureau, died suddenly Wednesday, Nov. 5, 1958 at her home, 148 Earl St.

A graduate of St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing, Miss Fritz was a native of Rochester. She was a member of the Catholic Nurses' and Genesee Valley Nurses Associations and the Rosary Society of St. Monica's Church.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Flora Wiesemeyer and Mrs. James Scully, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Henry D. Halleran Funeral Home, 111 Arnett Blvd. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Thomas C. Kane, assisted by Monsignor Gerald C. Lamorte, Deacon and the Rev. Gerald E. Dunn, Subdeacon. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Chapel Planned For DeSales

Geneva—Sister Marie Margaret, S.S.J., principal of DeSales High School, announced plans for the establishment of a chapel in the high school.

The Bishop wrote: "Permission is hereby granted for the establishment of an oratory in DeSales High School, with permission for reservation of the Blessed Sacrament."

"May I suggest that it be the Chapel of the Sacred Heart. That will bring rich blessing to your school. Furthermore, that will guide in planning the altar which should have the figure of the Sacred Heart or painting as altar piece. Your altar necessarily small can be built around the picture of the Sacred Heart."

The oratory will be located on the first floor directly across from the main office. Plans which have been under consideration for some time are being made by the principal and the chaplain.
