Funeral Rites In Corning

Corning—Requiem Mass was offered in St. Patrick's Church Nov. 12, for Mrs. Margaret F. Reagan of 238 E. First St. Celebrant for Mass, which followed prayers at Poland funeral home, was Rev. Leo Mannus of St. Bernard's Seminary at Rochester.

Rev. Joseph Guilfoill, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, Rev. William Tobin, administrator at St. Patrick's Church and Rev. Harold Rogers, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Church at Painted Post, were in the sanctuary.

Fathers McMannus and Tobin officiated at the committal in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Reagan died Nov. 10, 1958, following a two month illness.

For the past 50 years Mrs. Reagan had been a resident of Corning, where she was a member of St. Patrick's Church and its Stella Maris Society.

Surviving are: one son, five daughters, one brother, three sisters, 16 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Corning—The funeral of Mrs. Lenora Agnes Smith of 188 Canisteo St. was held Nov. 15, with prayers at the A. W. Bellby and son funeral home, followed by Requiem Mass at St. Patrick's Church with Rev. William Cannan, pastor, as celebrant. Rev. James Baker, assistant pastor, was in charge of committal services in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Mrs. Smith died at her home Nov. 12, 1958. She had a heart condition for the past year.

Mrs. Smith was a member of St. Patrick's Parish, its Stella Maris Society, Court of St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America and was a past president of the John P. Eaton Post American Legion Auxiliary.
