First Offense Usually Last

Daughters Hear Attorney

Geneva — "Ninety-nine percent of youthful offenders are never in trouble again after their first offense," District Attorney M. Maurice Chacchia told Court Annihilation, Catholic Daughters of America.

The district attorney was speaker at a meeting of the court recently in St. Stephen's School hall. His subject was "Juvenile Delinquency."

THE YOUTHFUL offender is given every opportunity to be treated as an individual one, he said.

He also noted that there are no "gangs" in Geneva as are prevalent in larger cities of the country.

Grand Regent Mrs. Margaret Bolger presided at the meeting. She announced that a Mass for deceased members of the Court will be held at 8 a. m. Thursday, Nov. 20, in St. Francis de Sales Church.
