

Scottsville Man Wins Scholarship

Samuel C. DiNolfo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel DiNolfo of 12343 South Rd., Scottsville, has been awarded a $100 scholarship at Niagara University by the Rochester chapter of the university's National Alumni Association. It has been announced. He is a sophomore at Niagara.

The annual award was set up by the local alumni group three years ago for the purpose of expressing the chapter's appreciation to Rochester area students for selecting Niagara University as their Alma Mater and to recognize scholarship and personality in a student and offer assistance in attaining his goal.

Irish Top Timon; Mirquet Stars

By FRANK KELLY

Little Bobby Mirquet, former mascot turned quarterback, was the star as the Little Irish of Aquinas Institute wound up its football season on a successful note Sunday by walloping Bishop Timon of Buffalo 34-6.

Capitalizing on several Timon miscues, the Little Irish, with Mirquet leading the way, virtually saved up the game by halftime in the 20-0 lead.

AFTER TOM Bright intercepted a pass thrown by Larry Carr and ran it back 45 yards for the first score, Mirquet, who once was a mascot for an Aquinas team back in the halcyon days of Little Irish football, had a hand in every other Little Irish score.

He threw touchdown passes to Tom DiCesare in the first period; a second to Bob Lambert; a third to Pat Wall, both in the second period, and a fourth to Ron Chatterton in the third period.

Lambert accounted for four extra points; Carr, for two, and a run.

morning game as they trounced the Timon JV's, 26-0.

Thus, the Little Irish wound up its most successful season in recent years, coming up with victories over Watertown, Erie, Mt. Carmel, Elmira, Canisus and Timon, with losses only to Pittsburgh Catholic and Bishop Fallon, for a 6-2 mark.

Next week we will have a run down of the basketball squads representing the high schools in the Diocese during the 1938-39 year.

Fall Inspection At Cadet School

The annual Fall Inspection and Drill Competition was held at Nazareth Hall Cadet School yesterday, Thursday.

At this time each year the cadets are reviewed by guest inspectors. Each platoon receives points for personal appearance, military bearing, ability to execute commands, and display of special drills. The winning platoon receives a trophy which is kept until Spring inspection when another competition is held.
