Golden Wedding

Mrs. J. Alfred Austin of 29 Brent Rd. will mark their golden wedding anniversary with a reception at the Truway Inn, Rochester, on Sunday, Nov. 30.

The couple who were married by the late Rev. John Cadyre at St. Louis Church, Pittsford, on Nov. 27, 1903, renewed their wedding vows at a special anniversary Mass held yesterday, Thursday, at St. James Church. The Mass was celebrated by Rev. Francis Feeney, pastor.

Following the Mass, a breakfast was held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Dieter. About 150 relatives and friends are expected to attend the celebration Sunday.

The couple have six children, Mrs. T. Howard Warren and Mrs. Dale Virgil of Long Island, Gerald and Leonard Austin of Rochester, and Mrs. Edmund Robt., Mrs. Horner Sparks and Mrs. William Dieter of Rochester. They also have 22 grandchildren.

Austin has been employed by Monroe County for 34 years. Mrs. Austin is the former Mary E. McGrath.

Squires Circle Being Formed

Shortsville—Father John E. Napier, C.M., of Columbian Squires is being organized in St. Dunin's Church, sponsored by the Canadigua Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Albert Ryan vice chairman of the State Youth Committee of the K of C, is helping to organize the group, with Ralph Ritz as chief fundraiser, and Father Leo Hastings as prior.

On Sunday, Dec. 14 the boys will attend the 8:30 Mass and receive Communion after which they will have a father and son breakfast in the church hall. At 1 p.m. they will be invested as charter members of the circle.

Fisher Faculty In Study Program

Members of St. John Fisher College's Faculty participated in a Canadian American Studies Program sponsored by the University of Rochester. The conference was held at Woodward House in Ledy.

Representing the college were Very Rev. Charles J. Lavery, C.S.B., president; Fathers Leo J. Munnely and Russell Pendegast and Dr. John Murray of the history department.

The conference was directed by Dr. Mason Wade, professor of history at the University of Rochester and director of the Canadian American Studies program at the university. Representatives from about 30 colleges in the United States and Canada took part in the program and discussed particularly the teaching of history.

Niagara Alumni Name Officers

Ray Mahon was named president of the Rochester chapter, Niagara University National Alumni Association, to succeed John A. Welton at a meeting of the group in Our Lady of Victory Church Hall.

The group also named Thomas Gibbons, vice president; Marvin Parker, corresponding secretary; James Green, recording secretary; and James Farrell, treasurer. John A. Crowner, Arthur Buckley and Dominic D'Ambrosia were chosen as directors.

Rev. George E. Krock, C.M., executive secretary of the national group, is chairman of the local unit.
