Mercy Nuns To Hold Bazaar

Sisters of Mercy in each of their 28 convents of this diocese, have been sewing, knitting, painting, and dreaming up unique handmade Christmas gifts for the Christmas sale and bazaar, Dec. 12, in the gymnasium of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

The public is invited from two to five p.m. and from seven to eleven p.m., according to Mother Mary Magdalene, Mother General of the Sisters of Mercy.

A special Christmas booth will feature artistic cribs, wreaths, holiday decorations, and centerpieces, gift wrappings and Christmas corsages.

Fancy handwork includes crocheted and knitted stoles and baby sets, tatted pillow cases and handkerchiefs, dainty aprons, baby clothes, and doll dresses.

DOLL AND doll wardrobes will dominate the gym: nun dolls, bride dolls, glamour dolls, and baby dolls. Stuffed animals and inexpensive Christmas toys will create a miniature Toyland, while a games section, "Kiddies' Corner," will provide diversion for the live dolls.

Baked goods will feature homemade bread, cookies, and cake, fresh from the Motherhouse ovens.

SPECIAL BOOTHS for Mom and for Dad are planned for Christmas gift selection, as are a religious articles counter, and one for household utilities. Games of skill will contribute to the fun and funds. Proceeds from the Christmas Sale will go towards the new Catherine McAuley Junior College building, presently under construction.

Mrs. Harold Wintish is chairman. Refreshments will be served. Awards include a diamond ring, a portable TV, Philco briefcase, and a clock radio.

DOINGS AT THE DALY'S

Blunders In The Budget

By Mary Tinley Daly

Any leaks in your household budget?

With strict budgeteers, every cent is accounted for, but even in the most rigid there is an item labeled "Misc."

Mary Daly

Frankly, our own "Misc." covers the totals that don't add up, the chances we took on a car somebody else is now driving, the etc., the etc., and the etc.

There are, however, definite leaks, and we wonder if they are peculiar to our house, or more-or-less universal, we hope?

BOOKS: In a face saving gesture, we label the item thus. In utmost honesty, between us and our library, it might truthfully be called "Fines on overdue books" with a codicil: "Books that never did show up and had to be paid for."

IN A FINE frenzy of literary enthusiasm, we visit the parish and or the suburban library. Like someone who has had no lunch and arrives at a party just as the hors d'oeuvres are being passed, we avidly take this-and-that. Here's a novel everybody is reading, a spiritual book that will uplift the soul, one about the Caribbean we hopefully expect to visit, a "how to study" that Ginny really should read if she's ever going to get proper study habits . . .

Well, that's enough. We survey the four volumes cozied into our crooked left elbow. The eye catches an alluring title: "How to Save on Household Expenses." That we should have, as part of our homework.

We take the fifth.

AT HOME, we start the novel, find that the involved problems of a fictional heroine are too much to take at the end of a long day of problems. Let Suzanne find her own way.

We decide to do a bit of spiritual reading before the late news broadcast. . . .

Another day or so, another dip into the spiritual reading. We find eyelids drooping, as we try to mull over the real lift we've received.

More evenings go by — people come in, or we go places. Then we take a look at the Caribbean book: history, geography . . . we begin to wonder if we'll ever be able to afford it and decide to postpone the boning up until the prospect is closer.

"Now here's a book you'll love, Ginny." We somewhat gushingly put the volume in front of our 13-year old.

"Oh, yeah?" Ginny yawns, "I heard you tell Daddy, 'This is something Ginny ought to read.'"

The "ought to" is the kiss of death for any book . . .

The book on household finances—it has disappeared and we have to pay for it. . . .

Fines for books overdue one book to be paid for—Leak No. One.

GASOLINE: This item sounds legitimate.

But, let's take a look behind the scenes, see why "Gasoline" is in the "Misc." column of the budget. Translated it means running out of gas.

Somebody takes the car, notes a quarter-tankful and goes and goes. Suddenly, in the midst of nowhere comes the portentious "whung whung-g lug." Grounded. A service call, service charge—Leak No. Two.

HOT WATER HEATER: This, too, should take its place proudly in any well-documented budget—and it does, up to a point.

That point is when the needle of the heater is pushed completely to the right. . . .

Somebody comes home from school or from work. There is a date in the offing.

"Well, for heaven's sake! You can't steam out a velvet dress, wash your hair, take a bath, get ready unless you've got plenty of hot water?"

So, the water heater chuggs away in the basement while Glamour goes on upstairs. Steam exudes from cracks in the bathroom door as the velvet dress gets itself steamed, its owner goes through a tortuous beauty routine.

Finally, the house is calm. We sit reading the over-due library books (might as well get our money's worth.)

"Thump - thump!" from the basement.

"Who turned that thing on high again?" the Head of the House thunders, stomping to the basement before the burst.

Leak No. Three.

Nier - Gocek Nuptials Said

Rita Ann Gocek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer A. Hoffmeier of Gason Ave., and Richard Edward Nier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nier of Redwood Rd., were married Nov. 29 in St. Stanislaus Church by the Rev. Joseph Nothnagle, cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Donald Bleier was matron of honor for her sister and Thomas J. Nier, brother of the groom, was best man.

Marie DeSando and Anne Deviny were senior bridesmaids. Karen Kross was junior bridesmaid. Ushers were Pvt. Bruce Gocek, U.S.M.C., James E. Harter and Warren T. Grinnan.

ABBOUD OF THE MOUNTAIN
$2,500 will build a chapel to Our Lady of Rescue, in the little village of Abboud in Lebanon. The mountain villagers are barely able to eke out their daily living. Willingly do they give of their manual labor. Here is a wonderful opportunity to plant an evergreen cedar of faith and of spiritual remembrance on a holy eastern mountain. You or your beloved dead will never be forgotten. May Our Lady rescue these good Christians and give them a fitting place of worship. The Holy Father will be very grateful.
WHAT YOU PUT IN THE HAND OF THE HOLY FATHER YOU PUT IN THE HAND OF CHRIST.
CHRISTMAS CLUBS
"An old age serene and bright shall lead thee to thy grave." Such is the objective of our DOLLAR-A-MONTH MISSION CLUB called PALACE OF GOLD, which helps us to support our homes for the aged. We, too, shall grow old someday and our blessings will come back a hundredfold. The old folks also look forward to Christmas.
ARRANGE NOW FOR GREGORIAN MASSES AFTER DEATH. ASK ABOUT THE SUSPENSE CARD.
ORPHAN'S BREAD
"The cry of infant hunger pierces deep the human breast." We have a family of over 500,000 underfed children. Out of love for the Babe of Bethlehem could you give them a CHRISTMAS DINNER? $10 will buy a FOOD PACKAGE. Monsignor Ryan, our overseas representative of the Pontifical Mission for Palestine, will be on hand to supervise the distribution. To show our appreciation, we will send you a FREE OLIVEWOOD ROSARY from the Holy Land. Please make some poor child happy.

CHRISTMAS-GIVING

We have artistically colored MASS CARDS for the living and the dead. Or give the gift of supernatural life through MEMBERSHIP. Individual $1, Family $5, for one year; and Individual $20, Family $100, Perpetual. Or give someone an enrollment in one of our DOLLAR-A-MONTH MISSION CLUBS; a STRINGLESS GIFT; or a DESIGNATED GIFT. A STRINGLESS GIFT IS YOUR GIFT CERTIFICATE TO THE NEW HOLY FATHER FOR HIS NEAR EAST MISSIONS.
MY SPIRITUAL CHILD
Do you really want to give a worthwhile Christmas gift — one that will never tarnish? Then why not consider educating a poor boy for the Priesthood or an indigent girl for the Sisterhood? MYRON and PETER of the Pontifical Ruthenian College each needs $600. POOR CLARE SISTER-NOVICES ANDREW and SANCTA need $300 each. Naturally, convenient installments over a six or two year period.
