

New Booklet For Teenagers Set

"Sports Library," a new booklet aimed at the teenage market, will come out during the Christmas season, Francis Payne, Elmira distributor has announced.

Written and published by Elmira, N.Y. Waloshin of 313 Roe Ave., Elmira, a member of St. Casimir's Parish the booklet will be published every two weeks and will feature stories on well known sports figures.

Couple Feted On Anniversary

The life of a woman and her world's writer and middle aged title holder will be featured by the first issue. The booklet, which will come out every two weeks, is designed as a substitute for interest comic books and pulp magazines which are common play on newsstands. It is hoped that teenagers will use the booklets as a start of a sports library.

Aquinas Hoop Team Splits Two Games

The Little Irish of Aquinas Institute have a 200 record as a result of splitting their first two games of the current season.

After squeaking out a 42-39 win over Batavia High School last Friday at Batavia, the Little Irish a quiet returned home Sunday only to bow to St. Joseph's 17-7 of Buffalo, 49-41.

IN FRIDAY'S GAME, Bill Buechel led his team in scoring with 10 points as Aquinas came from a one-point deficit at the end of the third period to win the hotly contested affair.

All the Little Irish who played scored as they evaded the Batavia defense through up against them. Batavia was paced by Bob Hart and Tom Connamitto with 10 and 10 points respectively.

SUNDAY'S SCHEDULE for the Little Irish led to the conclusion of the season. They will play St. Joseph's on Sunday at 10 a.m. and St. Joseph's on Sunday at 10 a.m. and St. Joseph's on Sunday at 10 a.m.

THE CARMELITES were led by Ed Murphy who tallied 17 points. The Knights took to the court and Saturday at the first court and Saturday at the first court and Saturday at the first court.

In the CYO league it was the weekend. St. Charles defeated St. James at the CYO auditorium, 23-17 while Annunciation's defeated St. Thomas 26-23 in high school competition.

Dave Schaeffer of St. Charles scored 10 points for the victory. In the Annunciation game, Tom Cappadonia scored 14 for the winners while Tommy Bierman paced the losers with 11.

School Remodeling Seen

Finished In March

Corning—Remodeling of the north building of St. Mary's School is about 25 percent complete, it was reported today by W. E. Granger & Sons of Elmira, the general contractor.

The remodeling consists of the first phase of the general project which will modernize the school facilities and replace the old present building with a new structure.

THE WORK was started in September soon after the awarding of the contract and was to have been completed by Feb. 1.

Special Sale Set For College

A Christmas cookie sale, proceeds of which will go to St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, Md. Sesquicentennial Fund, will be held at St. Mary's Hospital Wednesday, Dec. 17 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Marton of Southold State is chairman. Rochester Chapter of St. Joseph College, Altoona will sponsor the sale.

St. Joseph's School was founded by Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton in Emmitsburg, April 25, 1859. Mother Seton is the founder of the Daughters of St. Vincent de Paul, Sisters of Charity of the United States. Her cause for canonization is being advanced in Rome. Should this take place she may become the first American born saint.

Prayers are being offered for the cause and it is hoped that the canonization will take place next year.

Work of the Sisters of Charity and of the Sales Guild is well known according to Mrs. Marton.
