willing to receive the Gift of God.

PAGANS FIGURE more prominently in the Christman story than the Jews. First, it was a pagan Emperor, Caesar Augustus, who became the instrument of God for fulfilling the old prophecy

THEN TOO, there were the three pagen Wise Men who braveled across a descri to find Wisdom cradeled in a manger. Though Simeon was a Jew, he told Mary that the Divine Childwould be a "Light to the Gentiles." Even the Angels who announced the Birth of Jesus to the shepherds said that the Babe came to bring peace to "men who are God's friends." This opened salvation not to one race or people, but to all who were

WHY DID THE PAGANS figure so prominently in the First Chrisimas if it was not to give promise to what we know today as the mission lands? If God used the pagan Augustus, who killed three hundred Senators, to bring Mary to Bethlehem, why could He not use Man of China, who killed three hundred missionaries, to prepare the way for Christ in China? If God used a star to bring the Kings of the East to the crib, why could He not bring the tribal kings of Africa to the King of Kings? SHALL WE WHO kneel at the manger at Christmas embrace the Shepherd who are of "our own country" and ignore the Wise Men who came in distant mission lands to seek the Wisdom of God in the flesh? Would not you regard the crib in your Church or your house at Christmas a blurred picture of the truth if only the Shepherds were there and not the Magi? Have you celebrated Christmas by giving gifts to those who are at home while forgetting the Japanese, the Koreans, the Africans, the Indians who are still following the star? After all, it was the mission land visitors who brought gifts to the Child; here is no evidence the Shepherds brought a lamb HOW EMBARRASSING it is at Christmas to receive a beautiful gilt from Aunt Rebecca knowing that you failed to send her even a card. But to those who are "God's friends" it is more embarrassing to have forgotten the pagans from the mission lands. Make up for it now; sit-down and send gold to the Vicar of Christ through his Society for the Propagation of the Faith, by burning the frankincense of worship to the Babe while offering the myrrh of sacrifice. You gave gifts to all your children; why not gifts to all God's children, even those in the foreign missions. GOD LOVE YOU to Mr. and Mrs. E.S.H. "I am making it my business to give to the missions every Christmas.
