

Perosian Choir Lists Performances

Nazareth Academy's Perosian Choir will present "Love From Judy," the London song hit version of "Daddy Long Legs" on Sunday and Monday, Feb. 8 and 9, at 8:35 p.m. Sister Rose Teresa, moderator, said that the performance is a mixture of "contagious melodies, clever dialogue, charming romance, and spectacular ballet."

Soprano Janet Miller, a four-year voice student, has the lead role as "Judy." The role of "Grace Pritchard" will be portrayed by soprano Lucyann Conte, president of the Perosians.

The leading male role, "Jim Fendleton" will be handled by baritone Philip Fallon, a West High School graduate.

Among Women The Catholic Press

By Mary Lennon Snyder

In preparation for Catholic Press Month, I received recently some very interesting material about the Catholic Press in the U.S.A. and Canada. Grouping the press into four divisions: the press in English, the press in Spanish, the press in Italian, and the press in French, I describe the Catholic newspapers in this manner:

"Most Catholic newspapers are published in the United States and Canada. The fact sheet reports that most Catholic magazines are published by religious orders; only a few by laymen. The largest group of Catholic magazines are the mission magazines, disseminating knowledge of, and raising funds, for missionary purposes.

Some of these come into our home, and among them are publications which have a professional polish and copy that is not to be excelled in secular magazines. The young people pass Maryknoll and the Marxist Missions from one to another, and days pass sometimes before I can lay a hand on a copy.

IN MINOR roles are Sharon Carey, as the ghost of Sarah Wayne, and Mary Mulligan, Janice Bengle and Linda Sapere, as wedding guests.

Filling the shoes of the male characters will be Mike Drons, McQuaid; Don McLane, Flight

The story, a combination Brigadoon-Atsbea Laurie type, according to Sister Mary Plus, director, is laid in England about 1914 and concerns itself with the romance between Kathleen and Kenneth Wayne, and the opposition they encountered on the part of her guardian, Uncle John.

REHEARSING for Our Lady of Mercy High School's senior play on Feb. 6 and 7 in the school auditorium are Mary Mulligan, Janice Bengle, Elaine Klingler, Pat Madigan and Joan Kersee.
