Cub Scouts Tour Newspaper Plant

Geneva—Pack 8, Den 10, of St. Stephen's School learned about how a newspaper is made in a visit to the Geneva Times recently.

The boys were taken on a tour of the plant starting at the advertising department and continuing on through the business and editorial offices, composing room and press room.

OF SPECIAL interest to the boys were the teletype machine, the linotype machines and the big press.

At the conclusion of the tour, the scouts watched the edition of the Times roll off the press. They were presented souvenirs of their tour.

Den members on the tour were Michael Kelly, Russell LaRocca, Donald Andrews, Thomas Riley, James Nessler and Richard Killgrew.

The group was accompanied by Den Chief Larry Duchaney and Mrs. George Nessler, den mother, and Mrs. Leo Kelly, chief den mother.

DeSales Holds Victory Dance

Geneva—A victory dance was held recently in De Sales-High School Gym to celebrate the De Sales "historic" basketball victory over Geneva High School.

The "Salesian" staff sponsored the dance. The victory marked the first time since 1944-45 that De Sales had won a basketball game from Geneva.

Proceeds of the dance will be used by the year book staff to help defray the cost of pictures for the Salesian.

DeSales Senior
Gets Mission Award
Geneva—Mary Ann Sullivan, a De-Sales High senior, recently was awarded second prize in a national contest held during the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade convention last September at Notre Dame University.
The prize is a silk screen plaque of St. Isaac Jogues, martyr-saint of North America.
The object of the contest was to answer correctly three questions which are commonly asked of Catholics by Non-Catholics about the Church.
Winners were judged on the basis of accuracy, completeness, neatness and grammatical construction.
