Clyde Holy Name Society Installs

Clyde — The Holy Name Society of St. John the Evangelist Church held its annual installation banquet recently at Matty's Shipplatern Inn, Clyde.

Installed in office were Joseph Jocco, president; Harry Sherman, first vice president; Pat A. Cimineri, second vice president; Michael Liseno, secretary, and Ralph Tavano, treasurer.

Guest speaker at the event, attended by 112 men and women, was Rev. William Jamison, C.S.S.R., from Notre Dame retreat House, Rochester.

Chairman of the banquet was Veto Montemorano and Rev. Paul J. Cuddy was toastmaster. Rev. William Doran was also a guest. Rev. Henry Adamski is society moderator.

Best Gains Reported
By Community Bank

The greatest gains in the 89 year history of Community Savings Bank were registered in 1958; Charles W. Carson, president, told the bank's board of trustees Monday at the University Club.

Assets climbed to an all-time high of $164,542,118, up $14,449,000 or 9.6 percent over the previous year, Carson reported. The record-breaking growth of $13,544,520 in savings deposits for a total of $146,493,115 represents a 10.18 percent gain.

THE JOSEPH M. Edd family, members of St. Helen's parish, Gates, reflect the family Rosary crusade being sponsored by the Sodality of St. Agnes High School. Pictured around the table are Joseph and Michael, in front; Jimmy, Pam, Mr. Edd, with Gerry in front of him, Mary; behind the status of Our Lady, Mrs. Edd and Peggy. In the rear is Mr. Edd's father, Patrick Edd. The family has been saying the Rosary together every night for six years.

High School Review

Rosary Crusade Successful

The Family Rosary Crusade, one of the year's projects for the Sodality of St. Agnes High School has proved to be a huge success.

Sister Elaine Theresa, Sodality moderator at the school, said that an increase of 77.1 percent was noted in the first follow-up survey after the drive started.

THE DRIVE WILL continue for the rest of the school year at which time the school hopes to have one hundred percent participation in the family Rosary plan.

Sister Elaine Theresa pointed out that families such as the Edd family of Gates, two of whom, Peggy and Pam attend St. Agnes, should be an example for the school's students. They have been saying the Rosary together for six years.

They are Susan, Osinski, Veronica Herne, Jean Marie Leimberger, Virginia Schitzer, Carole Lloyd, Ann Kastner, Mary Lou Hoffman, Linda Fromen, Carol Smith, Mary Lupiani and Jo Ann Sokoliski.

6TH BRANCH will be entertained by Mrs. James O'Brien at her home on Schofield Road, Tuesday evening, Feb. 3. This newly formed group elected as its first chairman, Mrs. David Andrews and as treasurer, Mrs. Frank O'Connor. Mrs. Andrews will outline plans for the coming year.

57TH BRANCH re-elected Mrs. Richard Q. Schujart of Creek Meadow Lane chairman on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Robert E. Bauer of Seneca Parkway. Others named included Mrs. Richard E. Lewis, treasurer; Mrs. Drew Rohrer, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Joseph G. Fritsch, social chairman.

65TH BRANCH will meet at the home of Miss Sheila Cleary on Woodgate Terrace, Wednesday, Feb. 4.

Joseph J. Keller Funeral Mass Said

The funeral of Joseph J. Keller, 90, of 866 Dewey Ave. was held at Holy Rosary Church, January 8. Rt. Rev. Monsignor Charles F. Shay was celebrant. Active bearers were members of the Rochester Temple, Noble Degree of the Holy Cross.

Honorary bearers were uniformed members of Holy Rosary Commandery Knights of St. John, of which Mr. Keller was a member for nearly 50 years. Present in the sanctuary were Reverend Fathers Albert J. Gieger and William Gordliner.

Mr. Keller was a charter member of the Nocturnal Adoration Society, the Holy Name Society of Holy Rosary Church, a past officer of Holy Rosary Commandery, past secretary of the Rochester Chapter Chevalliers, Fourth Degree and of the Rochester Temple Noble Degree.

He is survived by two sons, J. Roy Keller and Charles J. Keller of Rochester and one grandson.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery with prayers by Rev. James Doyle of Holy Rosary Church.

Lourdes Novena At Corpus Christi

Annual Novena in honor of Our Lady of Lourdes will be conducted at Corpus Christi Church, East Main St. at Prince St. from Feb. 2 through Feb. 10.

Services each evening will begin at 7:45 p.m.

Monsignor John E. Maney, administrator of Corpus Christi Church, said that services each evening will conclude with application of water from the miraculous spring at Lourdes to all attending the novena.

Services each evening will consist of Rosary, novena prayers, seton and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.
