(Continued from Page 1) Bernard's Seminary. He was ordained by Bishop Bernard J. McQuaid, Rochester's first bishop, in old St. Patrick's Cathedral, June 14, 1902. He served as assistant pastor at St. Patrick's Cathedral and as chaplain at industry. In 1909 he was named pastor of St. Michael's Church, Livonia Center, and served the mission churches at Conesus and Honoye. He built St. Joseph's Church at Livonia and in 1915 was transferred to the pastorate of St. Mary's of the Lake Church at Ontario.

He was appointed Brockport pastor in 1917. Priests of the Diocese chanted office of the dead Sunday evening.

ASSISTING Bishop Casey at the funeral Mass were Very Rev. Msgr. John E. McCaffery, assistant pastor; Rev. Gerald C. Krieg, a grand-nephew, deacon, and Rev. L. John Hedges, sub-deacon.

Rev. Edwin R. Wetlow and Rev. Francis M. Feeney were masters of ceremonies.

Acolytes were Rev. Lawrence W. Sansom and Rev. Lawrence Murphy. Rev. James Doyle was officiator.

Rev. John Murphy, Rev. John Steger and Rev. William Charbonneau were candle, mitre and grémiale bearers.

Father Gerald Krieg gave the absolution at the grave in the priests' plot of Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Rochester.

Monsignor Krieg is survived by a brother, Anthony, and a sister, Theresa, both of Rochester. His sister, now at St. Ann's Home, served as his housekeeper for almost 50 years. He also leaves a nephew, Cyril, Krieg, also of Rochester.

Women 'Talk Out' Religious Bias

Toledo — (RNS) — About 450 women representing the Protestant, Jewish and Roman Catholic faiths discussed problems dealing with inter-group relations at the third annual Women's Institute on Human Relations held at the University of Toledo.

The all-day session was sponsored by the Toledo Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, United Church Women of Toledo, and the Toledo Section, National Council of Jewish Women. The Toledo Board of Community Relations assisted with arrangements.

George Schermer, executive director of the Commission on Human Relations at Philadelphia, Pa., was the keynote speaker and his talk dealt with the conflict between religious groups.

Allen D. Kandel, chairman of the Community Relations Association of the Cleveland (O.) Jewish Community Federation, told how an unpleasant interracial episode was avoided in a Cleveland suburb by making an appeal to neighborhood church leaders.

Frank "talking out" of prejudices was urged as the first step in being freed from them by Mrs. Clifford A. Bender of New York, associate secretary of the department of Christian Social Relations Board of Missions of The Methodist Church. She explained that solutions often are arrived at during frank discussions of this type.

Senator Says 'Welfare' Programs Protect Freedoms

Chicago — (NC) — Many so-called "welfare state" programs are needed to protect "the rights and freedoms of the individual," Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota said here.

Government has a "right and duty . . . to intervene when basic human welfare is at stake," Sen. McCarthy told the John A. Ryan Forum.

Sen. McCarthy was first speaker in the 1959 forum series, sponsored by the Catholic Council on Working Life. The forum is named for Msgr. John A. Ryan, first director of the Social Action Department, National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The Senator declared that "legislation is certainly defensible when it is designed to provide fair and just treatment of workmen, to insure minimum wages, to lessen unemployment and to provide some income during times of unemployment, to protect the farmer against loss of income through depressed farm prices and crop failure."

He added that "a case can be made for a measure of security against disabling accidents, sickness and old age, and for legislation to assist families to obtain adequate housing and adequate education for their children."

He said that government programs are inadequate in such fields as minimum wages, fair employment practices, protection of migratory farm workers, stabilization of the farm economy, housing, social security, unemployment compensation and education.

Remote Island To Have Pastor

Auckland — (RNS) — Norfolk Island, some 500 miles northwest of New Zealand, is finally getting a resident Roman Catholic priest after having some 105 years without a permanent pastor.

The United Workers (Communist) Party disclosed that it is now conducting 900 special "scientific atheism courses" throughout the country in preparation for an intensified drive against "religious superstition."

THE CAMPAIGN, it was announced, will be concentrated mainly in the rural areas—where the Catholic Church is especially strong—and teachers in particular will be "encouraged" to take the courses.

Meanwhile in an article published in Dziennik Ludowy, a Warsaw daily, a leading Communist writer, Jozef Czajkowski, sounded an alert against what he called the increasing growth of Catholic cultural and social organizations in the country.

Warsaw — (RNS) — New developments on political and other fronts are regarded by observers here as confirming fears that the Polish Communists may be girding for a fresh concerted attack on religion.

Geneva — (RNS) — Representatives of Protestant and Catholic voluntary agencies joined here in voicing "great hopes" for the 1959 World Refugee Year proclaimed by the United Nations.

They spoke at a meeting of the 25-nation executive committee of the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Refugees. Particular reference was made to the recent formation of the United States Committee for Refugees.

Nuns' Infirmary Drive Under Way

Mother Helene explains need for infirmary to campaign workers.

BOTH BISHOPS noted that the appeal has a twofold aim—(1) to provide space for the care of ill and aged Sisters; and (2) to expand space in the motherhouse for the housing and training of young women preparing for careers as Sister-teachers.

Of the 920 Sisters of St. Joseph in the diocese, 90 are retired from active duty because of illness or age. Present infirmary quarters on the top floor of the motherhouse can accommodate only 26. The remaining 64 are in other parts of the motherhouse, in hospitals, or in various convents.

Gerald R. Barrett is chairman of the general committee, and William Mulcahy heads the advanced gifts group. The Sisters of St. Joseph, largest religious order in the diocese, staff more than 60 institutions in the 12-county diocese.

Methodists Hear Priest Explain Catholic Schools

Bay City, Mich. — (NC) — A priest participated in a panel discussion on the advantages of the parochial school before a meeting of more than 200 ministers and social workers of the Methodist church here.

An interest in the expansion of the parochial and private school system was expressed at the meeting in the First Methodist church, which brought together the denomination's leaders in the Detroit district for discussions on Christian social relations.

The importance of the parochial school, regardless of religious affiliation, by the American way of life, the underlying philosophy of private education, and the advantages derived by the nation, the religious denomination and the individual from parochial schools were emphasized by Father Stanislaw Tuszynski.

(The Methodist church in this country now maintains some 133 schools of theology, universities, colleges, junior colleges and secondary schools. Some local Methodist churches operate local parochial schools.)

Father Stanislaw Tuszynski, curate at St. Hyacinth church; the Rev. Mr. Doug Parker, Methodist minister of Rochester, Mich., and Ally Ensign of Rochester, who represented the public school system, took part in a discussion of "A Holy Look at the Parochial Schools."

A CHILD ON THE EDGE OF THE DESERT . . .

lives a lonely life! And when he lives in Main of Jordan—his days are really rugged. This small village on the edge of the desert is cut off from the rest of the world by the Red Sea—by impassable roads—and by snipers' bullets. And yet, in this wild place, the Spirit of God has worked wonders among both parents and children. In the last twenty-five years this sturdy mission has grown to the point where a new Church and school are a pressing need. Can you help the "children of the desert"? The total cost will be $4,000.

YOUR GOOD WORKS WILL LIVE AFTER YOU WHEN YOU MENTION THE CATHOLIC NEAR EAST MISSIONS IN YOUR WILL. WHY NOT CHECK YOUR REQUESTS TODAY. MAKE YOUR WILL GOD'S WILL.

AS A KNIGHT WITHOUT ARMOR . . . AS A CASTLE WITHOUT A WALL . . . SO IS A PRIEST WITHOUT A CASSOCK! Your heroic missionaries always place themselves last on the list of appeals. They place every need of the children and the people before their own simple requirements. In the last month or so we have received many requests from dedicated men—and they ask for cassocks so that they may continue to wear this badge of their office. A cassock costs but $25 . . . could you possibly clothe one missionary as part of your Lenten sacrifice.

LENTEN WILL BEGIN ON WEDNESDAY (February 11) . . . A GOOD TIME TO THINK OF YOUR SOUL . . . MASS OFFERINGS MEAN SPIRITUAL STRENGTH FOR YOU . . . MATERIAL SUPPORT FOR YOUR PRIESTS.

LENTEN SACRIFICE IS GOOD FOR YOUR SOUL . . . MAY IT ALSO BE GOOD FOR THE HOUSE OF GOD . . . it will be if some of your sacrifice money is given for chapel articles—to be placed in your poor mission chapels. You may choose any article you wish and present it in your own name or in the name of a friend. We will send the gift card.

THE DAYS OF LENT ARE THE DAYS OF ANOTHER WORLD . . . TIME TO REFLECT ON THE NEAR OR DISTANT FUTURE . . . BE A REALIST . . . ARRANGE FOR GREGORIAN MASSES TO BE OFFERED FOR YOU AFTER YOUR DEATH . . . INQUIRE ABOUT OUR SUSPENSE PLAN . . . DO IT FOR LENT.

SUGGESTIONS FOR LENT ADOPT A PRIEST FOR LENT . . . JOHN and EDWARD are waiting to enter the Ruthenian seminary. They are exceptionally bright boys and well qualified to serve at the altar. They are willing to leave home . . . family . . . friends. BUT they cannot be accepted until we find a sponsor for each who will be able to pay the necessary expenses of each boy during the six year seminary course. The cost will be $100 a year for the six years. You may pay the money in any manner convenient while your "son in Christ" prepares himself for a life of service to the Mystical Body.

ADOPT A NUN FOR LENT . . . SISTER ANNE PAUL and SISTER PIUS MARIA are determined to serve in the Sacred Heart Congregation (S. In.). They know they are needed . . . they are certain God has called them . . . they are ready to enter the novitiate. All in readiness to accept them. If we can find a donor for each nun who will be willing to pay the $150 a year for necessary expenses during the two-year period of novitiate training. Why not adopt a "daughter in Christ" for your Lenten sacrifice this year? You will share in her life of prayer and sacrifice.
